

THE WEATHER

The indications are that it will be cloudy, probably occasional rain tonight and Wednesday; light variable winds.

THE LOWELL SUN

5 O'CLOCK

ESTABLISHED 1878

LOWELL MASS. TUESDAY NOVEMBER 10 1908

PRICE ONE CENT

FOUR ON TRIAL GOVERNOR GUILD

Men are Charged With Murder of Auburn, Me.

AUBURN, Me., Nov. 10.—A special term of the supreme court was convened today for the purpose of trying four men on the charge of murder. Two of the men are Albanians, charged with the murder of James Scott, a fellow countryman at Livermore Falls, last winter, and the other two are John and Frank Perkins, held for the killing of Frank Strout, their neighbor at Poland.

It was arranged to first try Pascal Nikolis and George Mone for the Scott murder. It was expected a jury would be completed easily and that County Attorney Morey would begin his opening this afternoon. Much interest centered in this opening as it was expected to disclose for the first time the evidence gathered by the state during the past three months and carefully guarded. Pascal's alleged confession, the testimony of two witnesses who have remained in jail and other features lent interest to the trial.

HE DREW A KNIFE

Man Said to Have Attacked His Sister

In police court today it was brought out that Eftychia Rousonmanes had a narrow escape from serious injury at the hands of her brother, Anthony Economides, in upper Market street, Saturday.

Yesterday afternoon Economides, wearing a pair of black eyes, appeared at the office of the clerk of the court and swore out a warrant for the arrest of one Anastasios Boufess, whom the complainant alleged brutally beat him. Boufess was arrested and arraigned in court this morning but it was found that the complainant was among the missing.

Lawyer Dennis J. Murphy, who appeared for the government, informed the court that he was of the opinion that Economides was mentally weak. Economides was found insane several years ago and was sent to the insane asylum at Danvers, where he spent some time and was later released and allowed to go to his home in Greece. While in that country he stabbed his mother and then came back to America and settled in Lynn. Saturday he came to this city and calling upon his sister in upper Market street, picked up a knife and it is said, was about to stab her, when her cries attracted the attention of Boufess and the latter rushed into the house and had battle with Economides, the result being that the latter received a couple of black eyes and was thrown into the street.

Mrs. Rousonmanes, the sister of the complainant, was on hand to testify against her brother, but owing to the latter's non-appearance the court ordered that a capias be issued and the complainant brought into court.

Economides gave his residence at 246 Boston street, Lynn, but it is thought that he is being cared for by some of his friends in this city.

AN INSURANCE CASE

On Trial at Superior Court Today Proves Interesting

The case of Everson vs. General Accident, Fire and Insurance company was resumed in the superior court yesterday after a lengthy conference between counsel and Judge White. When the case was resumed counsel for the defense made the following statement:

"Certain interrogations were filed while this case was suspended. Those interrogatories concerned the authority of Franklin J. Moore as manager in the United States. I cabled to Scotland, asking whether the authority of Mr. Moore would be admitted. The answer was returned that the company would not admit such authority until fully informed. Thereupon, after discussion with the court, the court made a ruling in response to a motion by Mr. Russell (counsel for the plaintiff) to default the defendant unless the interrogatories were answered. The court ruled that such authority must be admitted or the defendant be defaulted. I protested as vigorously as possible against such a ruling and in spite of that protest the court ordered me either to admit or be defaulted. Under these circumstances there is only one thing to do, from my point of view, that is, to admit. Regardless of personal consequences, I am therefore prepared to admit that authority."

Mr. Russell, counsel for the defense, continued to block the progress of the plaintiff's case by objecting to evidence being put in as bearing on the transactions of Franklin J. Moore, on the ground that proof was not made that the company had knowledge of those transactions.

The court admitted the evidence, subject to Mr. Russell's objections. The first witness put on by the plaintiff was Arthur E. Linnell, chief clerk of the insurance department, state house, Boston. Through this witness—the counsel for the defense constantly objecting—Mr. Russell proved certain papers signed by Franklin J. Moore as U. S. manager for the company. The witness testified to many papers from his office, bearing Franklin J. Moore's signature, as U. S. manager, covering the period of the issuance of the policy to Mr. Everson.

Mr. Russell also offered a letter addressed to the insurance company and signed Fred S. Moore. To this Mr. Russell objected on the ground that there was no proof of Mr. Fred S. Moore's authority. "Is it right here?" said Mr. Russell. "I can put him on the stand."

"Mr. F. S. Moore will not leave the court room," directed Judge White. "He is subpoenaed. Your Honor," said Mr. Russell.

Sixteen letters signed with the name of Franklin J. Moore as U. S. agent, on the company's letter heads, were shown by the witness. The case took up the entire day's session. An interesting and novel feature of the case came out today when Counsel Joseph F. Bassity, for the defense, taking a large sheet of drawing paper on a stand in front of the jury box, sketched in crayon a complete plan of the camp in which the accident occurred, from descriptions given him by the plaintiff, Everson who was on the witness stand. As Mr. Everson described the different points of the building Mr. Bassity placed them on the paper, carefully distinguishing the beams, stringers, etc., and the wood salvaged iron and other material used in its construction.

HON. CURTIS GUILD, GOVERNOR.

Issues Proclamation Making Nov. 26 Thanksgiving Day

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Gov. Curtis Guild, Jr., yesterday issued his proclamation, making Thursday, Nov. 26, Thanksgiving day. The proclamation follows:

"Earnest and sincere belief in divine guidance, deep-rooted faith that even present apparent evil must ultimately convert to good, upheld the founders of New England through trials that else where utterly destroyed settlements made by men less completely convinced of their own duty less deeply trustful of divine wisdom. Not for ease, but for strength, was the prayer of the Puritan, and in his prayer he disciplined his soul by seeking cause less for repining than for praise. In accordance with the beautiful custom, which since Gov. Bradford called the colonists together after their first harvest, has yearly set aside a day at this season for the special acknowledgment of his mercies vouchsafed to us, I therefore, with the advice and consent of the honorable council, appoint Thursday, Nov. 26, as a day for the giving of thanks to Almighty God.

"In our testimony of gratitude for evil escaped or good achieved, whether we bear it by spoken word in the house of worship or in the quiet communings of our own hearts, let us not forget reverently to acknowledge the blessings of peace.

"Peace has entered among the nations. The long impending crisis that was to drench Europe with blood, has passed. There has come with it not war, but the deliberation of a patient and ancient race from a yoke centuries old. The white flag of our country bears our flag to the orient and to the south seas, but had there ever was a prophecy of the exasperation of enemies is forgotten in a world-wide revelation of friends.

"To the ancient sources of barbaric assault on civilization, the regions of the Scythian, the Persian, the Turk and the Tartar, has come the gospel of popular freedom; and freedom, not license, is peace.

"Peace is spread among the creeds. The old races, the mingling of whose blood swells the veins of the new, virile, strong American race, have brought to this soil varying methods of worship but the old intolerance is gone forever. Every year men quarrel less and less over the difference in the manner of their devotions. Every year, with a greater measure of mutual respect, comes the deeper sense of brotherhood under the same Divine Father.

"May this great gift of peace abide. May it never be confounded with servility or sloth. As war is death, so peace is life. May we reverently use it not each for himself alone, but each for his least fortunate neighbor, that he, too, may revel in life and enjoy it more abundantly.

"Given at the council chamber, this fourth day of November, the year of Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eight, and of the independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and thirty-third.

"By His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Council.

"William M. Olin, Secretary.

"God save the Commonwealth of Massachusetts."

DEATHS

McLAUGHLIN.—The many friends of Mrs. Mary McLaughlin will be pained to learn of her death which occurred this morning at her home, 327 Riverside street, after an illness of several weeks. She had been a highly respected resident of this city for over fifty years and was a prominent member of St. Patrick's church. She was deeply loved in her home circle and by those who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Henry Gardner and Miss Mary L. McLaughlin, one son, James F. McLaughlin.

The funeral will take place Thursday morning from her late home, 327 Riverside street at 8 o'clock. Burial will be at St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock. The funeral will be under the direction of Higgins Bros., undertakers.

Democrats Attention!

There will be a meeting of the Democratic voters of

WARDS 3-7

At Cummings' Headquarters, 48 Middlesex St.

At 8 O'CLOCK THIS EVENING.

All invited. LAWRENCE CUMMINGS, 29 Huntington Street.

A LOUD PROTEST WOMAN FOUND DEAD

Against Closing of Primary School Grades

The fact that no more primary school lots are allowed at the Greenhalge school in Ennell street is causing tongues to wag in that section of the city. The Greenhalge school was originally intended for a grammar and primary school and six of the ten rooms constituted the grammar school and the other four the primary school.

At the time that the Greenhalge school was built it was said that the Lakeview avenue school was not a fit place for children and that was why four of the ten rooms in the Greenhalge school were devoted to primary classes. Now, it is stated, no more primary school children are allowed to enter that school. Those who are already there will be allowed to stay, but they, of course, will be advanced in time, so that it will be eventually a full-fledged grammar school.

In view of the fact that at the time the Greenhalge school was built the Lakeview avenue school was considered a dangerous place for children because of poor sanitation, its close proximity to the dumps being harped upon as a very bad feature of its location, it does seem odd that at this time with the sanitary conditions as they were then and the dumps still there, that it should be considered a safe school for children.

What might be called a school line has been drawn through Cumberland road and, being refused admittance to the Greenhalge school, it is to the Lakeview avenue school that the children living on the southerly side of Cumberland road will have to go, if they go at all.

The children living on the northerly side of Cumberland road will have to go to the Billings street school, and that would entail a hardship that should not be imposed on little primary school children, especially in the winter time when the snow and slush are having their influence to have to plough their way by the Hillsboro cemetery and through that long stretch of dreary territory to the Billings street school.

"Something must be done to change the situation," said a man who has a little girl ready for the primary school. "It is a great pity that the children of my little girl or any other little girl to walk from her home to the Billings street school. This is a state of affairs that we will not stand for."

IS STILL MISSING

No Trace of Miss Georgianna Walker

Georgianna Walker is still numbered among the missing and it is now thought that she went to the river and not to the canal. Her father, James H. Walker, the well known contractor, speaking of the sad affair, today, said: "I have had men at work searching the canal and the river for some trace of Georgianna, but no trace has been found. Now that we have draged the canal and searched the river I do not know which way to turn."

FUNERALS

MURTAGH.—All that was mortal of the late Sarah J. Murtagh, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed residents of St. Peter's parish, was tenderly consigned to its last resting place in the family lot in the Catholic cemetery this morning. The funeral took place from her late home, 16 Abbott street, at 8:30 o'clock, and the remains were taken to St. Peter's church, where at 9 o'clock a high Mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. John P. Burns. The choir rendered the Gregorian mass. At the offering by Mr. P. P. Haggerty and as the body was borne from the church "De Profundis" was rendered by Mr. James E. Donnelly, assisted by the choir. Mrs. Josephine McKennedy presided at the organ and the choir was under the direction of Mr. P. P. Haggerty.

There was a profusion of beautiful and appropriate floral offerings showing the esteem in which the deceased was held by her many friends and acquaintances and among them were the following: Large pillow of roses, pinks and chrysanthemums with the inscription "Wife" from the husband of the deceased; large spray of white chrysanthemums tied with white ribbon, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murtagh of Middlebury, Mass.; large spray of chrysanthemums and ferns, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick O'Brien. There were several other sprays from friends.

Among the many mourners from out of town were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murtagh of Middlebury, Mass.; Miss Gertrude Mahan, Roxbury, Mass.; Mr. James Smith of Pawtucket, R. I.

The bearers were Messrs. Thomas Clark, Thomas Coleman, James Burke, Patrick O'Brien, John Welch and Cornelius Cainan.

The funeral proceeded to the Catholic cemetery, where the last rites of the Catholic church were read at the grave by the Rev. John P. Burns. The interment was under the direction of Higgins Bros., undertakers.

NEW STEAMER LAUNCHED

STEELTON, Nov. 10.—The steamer George Washington of the North German Lloyd line was successfully launched at Bremen, a suburb of this city today and christened by Dr. David J. Hill, the ambassador from the United States. The George Washington is the largest German built and owned steamer in the world. The ambassador made a brief speech before he broke a bottle of champagne over the vessel's bows, referring to the vast trade between Germany and the United States.

And the dedication of this great vessel to a mission of human service between the two continents is a token of mutual confidence," the ambassador declared.

In Lodging House on Tyler Street This Morning

She Had Never Done Any Work During Her Life Having Enough to Support Her in Idleness

Adelaide Lond, aged about 70 years, was found dead in bed at the lodging house conducted by Mrs. Fred M. Day at 4 Tyler street. It is thought that death was due to old age and affection of the heart.

But little is known about the woman other than that she never did any work during her life, was always able to pay her way wherever she went and was of a retiring disposition. She was very uncommunicative and loved solitude.

For a number of years she boarded at the Lane house at the corner of Central and Church streets and later went to reside with Mrs. Day. Little or nothing is known about her relatives, if she has any living.

She was accustomed to arise early in the morning, and this morning about 9:30 o'clock when one of the occupants of the house went to her room she was lying in bed apparently asleep. An investigation, however, disclosed the fact that she was dead. The police and medical examiner were immediately notified.

It is thought that Miss Loud was born and brought up in Portsmouth, N. H., but later went to Exeter, N. H. She came to this city 14 years ago and at the various places she lived the people were able to secure but little information from her other than that she had never worked in her life, being of a very respectable family, had inherited some money and received an annuity of $100 from her cousin, a Mr. Davis of California.

She was well educated and very fond of music, but during the past year she had from time to time complained of her heart troubling her.

SLASHED HIS THROAT

Rash Act of Thomas Mulvey of Whipple St. While Deranged

Thomas Mulvey, a well known resident of this city, during a temporary weakness of mind this morning cut his throat with a razor at his home, 52 Whipple street. He was immediately taken to St. John's hospital where little hope is entertained for his recovery.

Last Labor Day while walking through one of the streets he stepped into a hole and injured his knee cap and after spending some time in the hospital returned to his home and since that time has been able to get along only with the assistance of a cane or crutch. His health was greatly impaired and he was despondent at times.

His wife and her brother were making preparations to have him sent away, the former believing that he was mentally unbalanced, but they kept putting off the day to have him examined.

He arose at the usual time this morning and did not seem to be any more despondent than he had been of late, and when he left the kitchen to go into the cellar nothing was suspected.

It seemed that he had taken a razor which he was in the habit of shaving with and upon reaching the cellar drew it across his throat inflicting a ugly laceration.

About 9:30 o'clock Mrs. Mulvey thought it strange that her husband had not reappeared and going into the cellar found him lying in a pool of blood, his throat being cut almost from ear to ear and the blood stained razor was by his side.

Dr. John B. Boyle, who resides nearby, was immediately summoned and then the ambulance was called and the man was hurried to St. John's hospital. Mulvey was about 48 years of age and worked for a number of years in the Merrimack mills, but the last work he did was on the sewer department for the city.

He has a wife and two children, Marjitta and Fred.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

TIME LOST IN REPAIRING YOUR ENGINE IS TIME LOST BY THE WHOLE SHOP

An Electric motor will drive your machinery and will run for years without repair

We Make It Our Business to Furnish Power Continuously

Lowell Electric Light Corp. 50 Central St.

LAWRENCE CUMMINGS

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR

WILL SPEAK TONIGHT, NOV. 10

At polling booth corner Willie and Fletcher Streets.

LAWRENCE CUMMINGS, 29 Huntington Street.

HALL TO LET

The hall in the Harrington building, 52 Central street, will be vacated December 1st. For further particulars inquire at THE SUN OFFICE.

Catarrh

One of the most common of blood diseases, is much aggravated by the sudden changes of weather at this time of year. Begin treatment at once with Hood's Sarsaparilla, which effects radical and permanent cures. This great medicine has received in two years, which prove its wonderful efficacy in purifying and enriching the blood. Best for all blood diseases. In usual liquid form or chocolate tablets known as Sarsatabs, 100 doses $1.

40,366 Testimonials

SAMUEL GOMPERS

Again Attacks Pres. Roosevelt and Speaker Cannon

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 10.—Hearty applause greeted President Samuel Gompers in the American Federation of Labor yesterday, as he appeared before the delegates at the opening session of the 25th annual convention of the organization. Cheers also followed the close of his report, which he read at the afternoon session.

"The statements that there will be a fight in the convention in regard to the action taken by President Gompers, in the recent campaign, will not be fulfilled," said John Mitchell, formerly president of the United Mine Workers of America. "The action of Mr. Gompers cause we are workmen? Now it is the American Federation of Labor and the American Federationist which are enjoined from the exercise of the right of free speech and the liberty of the press. In the future it may be another party to be quoted as a precedent for future and further encroachments upon the rights and liberties of our people. The suppression of freedom of the press is a most serious undertaking, whether in autocratic Russia or the Republic of the United States. It is because the present injunction and the contempt proceedings thereunder suppress free speech and free press that I feel it my duty to enter an emphatic protest.

"The president made an unwarranted attack upon me and upon the labor organizations of the country. Speaker Cannon has packed committees, not only against labor, but against any other real reform legislation. Congress adjourned with the defiant declaration of one of the republican leaders, John S. Sherman, that the republican party is responsible for legislation, and he and his party were willing to assume the responsibility.

"The American labor movement is not partisan to a political party; it is partisan to a principle, the principle of equal rights and human freedom. Our conventions have frequently declared that your movement has neither the right nor the desire to dictate how a member shall cast his vote."

Mr. Gompers' defence of his action during the political campaign was greeted with cheers.

BRITISH PREMIER Discussed the Situation in Europe

LONDON, Nov. 10.—The prime minister, Herbert H. Asquith, was the principal speaker at the Guild hall banquet last night, which marked the inauguration of the new lord mayor of London, Sir George Wyatt Truscott, and brought to a fitting close the celebration of the king's 64th birthday.

The premier devoted his observations mainly to the European situation. After congratulating Turkey, in the presence of the Turkish ambassador, Musurus Pascha, on the success of the most amazing revolution in the annals of history, he declared that, subject to the important principle that international treaties could not be altered except by the consent of all the signatories, the British government had no prejudice against or preference in favor of any particular settlement. It had never objected to direct negotiations between Austria and Bulgaria and Turkey, always provided that Turkey, as the most prejudiced, should have a settlement consistent with her honor and interests, and that the agreement must be countersigned by all parties to the Berlin treaty.

Just a year ago the German emperor, while on his way to England, emphatically declared himself animated by a desire for friendship with Great Britain and the maintenance of the peace of Europe.

"It was that spirit," said Mr. Asquith, "that guided all the negotiations between the two countries concerning the present difficulties, and it is, I believe, the other powers are animated by a similar spirit, the clouds that are now darkening Europe will soon disappear without a storm."

"There ought to be no talk of isolation," continued the premier, "or of hostile grouping among the powers, that are the joint trustees of civilization and peace."

Mr. Asquith referred briefly to the commercial outlook, and thought that if peace were maintained there was no reason why the present depression should be of long duration.

Both the premier and Reginald McKenna, first lord of the admiralty, dealt with the question of national defense, especially with reference to the navy, in almost similar words. They declined to anticipate the next naval estimates, but the premier hinted that the cost of the navy was not likely to diminish, but rather increase, since, having attained supremacy, the government was fully determined to maintain it. The navy, said Mr. Asquith, was now equal to any responsibilities that could be thrown upon it, and its indisputable superiority was not for aggression or adventure, but it fulfilled the elementary duty of protecting British commerce, industry and homes.

GIFTS FOR THE KING
LONDON, Nov. 10.—The king spent his 64th birthday with the family circle at Sandringham, where he is entertaining a large house party, including the Queen of Norway, the Prince and Princess of Wales and the Russian and Austrian emperors. The king occupied the morning in reading a number of telegrams of congratulatory messages, among which was one from President Roosevelt and Emperor William. He also received many handsome gifts.

Later the king and queen and their guests attended the meet of the Royal Norfolk hunt, which made a picturesque scene in glorious weather at Gressley hall, the field of Romney's seat. In the evening there was the customary Berkeley dinner and party, with a cinematograph entertainment for the royal children.

Throughout the week dinners and entertainments will be given to the country and servants on the Sandringham estate. On Friday Cyril Maude has been commanded to give a performance of "The Flag Lieutenant" at Sandringham.

The king's birthday was celebrated in London and at all the naval ports with the customary salute and illuminations.

Telegrams received from abroad report enthusiastic celebration and dinners at the various British embassies.

KEARNEY SUES

Was Refused Admission to the Union

MILFORD, Nov. 10.—Alleging that they have deprived him of the means of earning a livelihood, by denying his application to become a member of their union, Daniel E. Kearney, himself the president of the local Central Labor union and a member of the Stone Cutters union, yesterday filed suits against each of the 25 members of the Bar Tenders union of this town. The union not being incorporated, each member was sued individually and each suit, the damages alleged was placed at $5000.

Up to a year ago Kearney was employed as a stone cutter and a member of the trade union. Forsaking his trade he obtained a position as a bartender in a local hotel. When the officers of the bartenders' union found that he was not one of their number they requested his employers to discharge him, with the alternative of the other employees quitting, and to this request the hotel complied. Kearney then applied for membership in the bartenders' union, but after being referred to the National president, T. K. Sullivan of Hartford, Conn., the union refused to have him enrolled.

The suits will probably be brought up for trial at the next session of the superior court, which meets early next month.

FOR CONTEMPT

Two Defendants Fined $250 Each

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—A fine of $250 each was imposed on the Day Express company, and Charles J. McCarthy, one of its officers, for contempt of court by Judge Loring in the supreme court late yesterday. Suit was brought against the company and Mr. McCarthy by the Boston and Maine railroad, which complained that the express company was shipping freight of passenger trains to intermediate points between Boston and Somersworth, N. H. The contract of the company only allowed express and freight business between the two terminal points. A stipulation that the company should not ship to intermediate points was agreed upon in lieu of an injunction and the case came into court yesterday on the complaint that the stipulation was disregarded.

MURDER CHARGE

MAY BE MADE AGAINST LORD DOUGLAS

WINNIPEG, Man., Nov. 10.—Lord Sholto Douglas, brother of the present Marquis of Queensbury, and son of the eighth marquis who framed the Queensbury rules under which prize fights are now conducted, is held in the provincial jail at Nelson, B. C., and probably have to face a charge of murdering his brother-in-law, Lord Mountbatten, who was shot and killed last week. Lord Douglas was shot and killed last week in his home at Creston, B. C., occupied by an ex-officer of the British army named Rowland. He ordered him to leave but Rowland would not do so, whereupon Sholto, it is said, pulled his shotgun at short range, hit back of the head and neck of Rowland. The injured man was removed to a hospital where he is now lying in a critical condition.

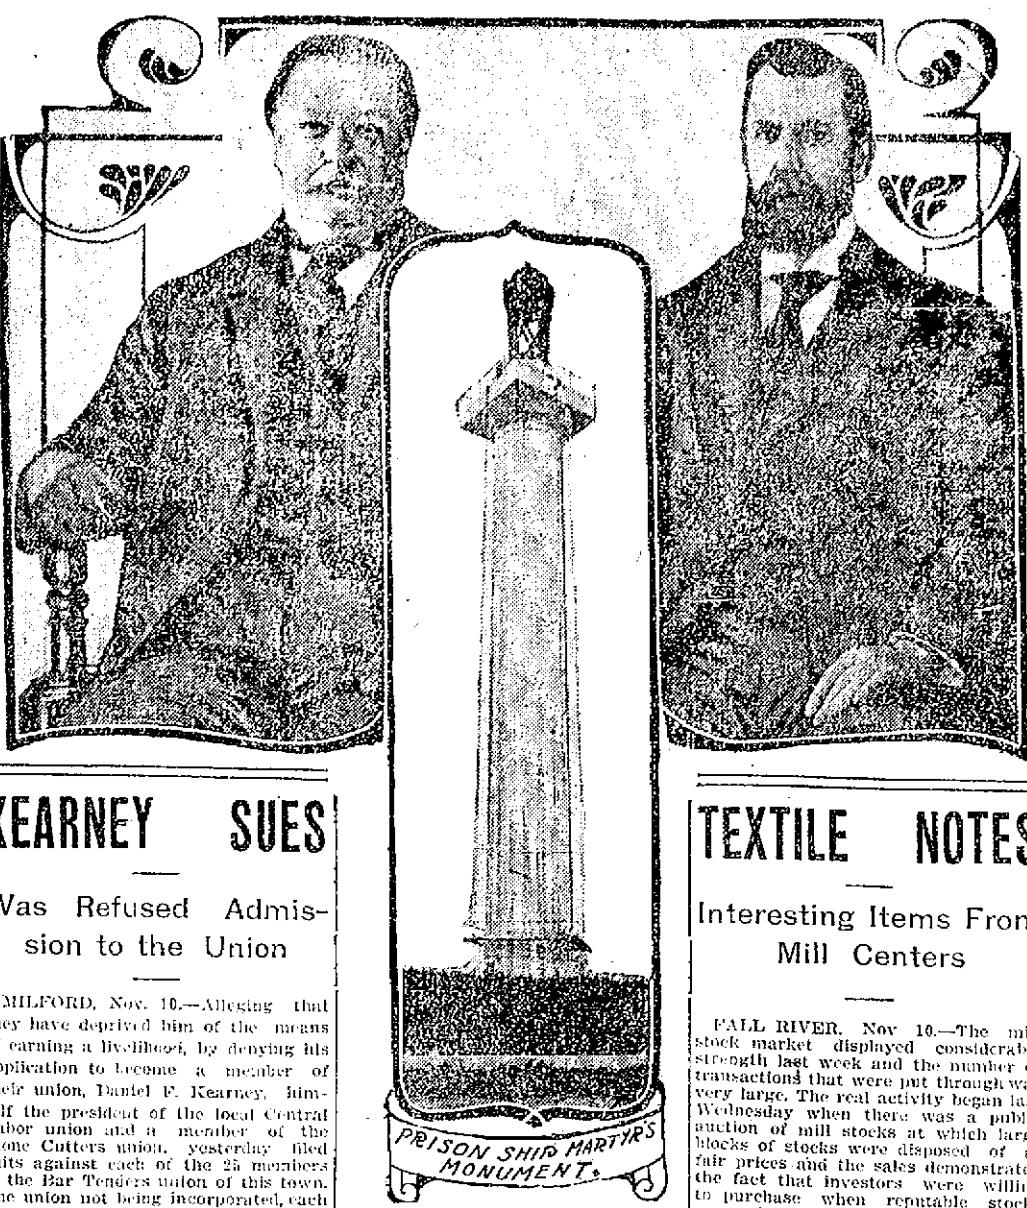

INSIST ON THE GENUINE

The white blood corpuscles are the protectors of the human body against the inroads of bacteria carrying the deadliest contagious diseases. It has been proven by actual tests that persons taking have a greater number of white blood corpuscles than before taking True's Elixir. It has kept the system toned for three generations (67 years). Why not start and take it to-day?

TRUE'S ELIXIR

85c. 50c. $1.00

TAFT AND HUGHES

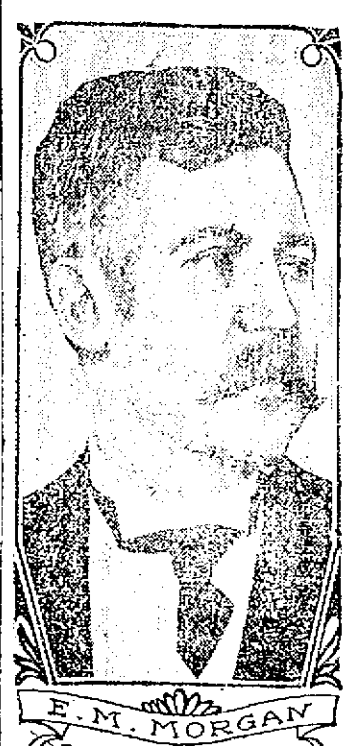

To Dedicate Martyrs' Monument

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—William H. Taft will be the principal speaker at the dedication on Nov. 14 of the monument erected in Brooklyn, N. Y., to the memory of the prison ship martyrs. Gov. Charles E. Hughes and Mayor McClellan of New York, who with the president-elect constitute the monument commission, will also join in the ceremonies. The monument, which for some time has been visible from the bridges and harbor, was designed by the late Stanford White and consists of a magnificent Doric column of granite about 270 feet in height, approached by a stately flight of several hundred steps, the whole being crowned by a tripod holding an electrically lighted globe, beams from which will be visible for many miles. Under the monument are buried the bones of the Revolutionary patriots who died of starvation and disease in the British prison hulks in the harbor.

N. Y. POSTMASTER

E. M. Morgan Shot by a Madman

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Postmaster Edward M. Morgan, who was shot down near his home in New York by an insane man, who thereupon killed himself, has been in the postal service for 25 years. He first worked as a letter carrier and gradually rose to the head of the civil service list, finally being appointed postmaster under two administrations. He was appointed postmaster in July, 1907.

E. M. MORGAN

KILLED WIFE

MAN THEN BLEW OUT HIS OWN BRAINS

WHITTA, Kans., Nov. 10.—Oscar Bell last night killed his wife, shot his mother-in-law, Mrs. M. A. Turner, then blew out his brains. His wife, who was instantly killed, held a four-month-old child in her arms, and the weight of her body fell on the child, seriously injuring it. The shooting was the result of a family quarrel.

TEXTILE NOTES

Interesting Items From Mill Centers

PAUL RIVER, Nov. 10.—The mill stock market displayed considerable strength last week and the number of transactions that were put through was very large. The real activity began last Wednesday when there was a public auction of mill stocks at which large blocks of stocks were disposed of at fair prices and the sales demonstrated the fact that investors were willing to purchase when reputable stocks were offered for sale. A greater demand for stocks developed as the week proceeded and the total transactions for the week are the largest in several months.

The statements of the mills have had much to do with stimulating inquiries for stock and it is believed that from now on the mill stock market will receive its share of business.

The David mills stock sold for $30, while the Flinn mills stock was disposed of at $102.50 a share; the Hiram and Parker mills shares commanded a valuation of $55 a share. The King Philip mills stock was sold for $156 a share. This corporation has a surplus account of close on to $500,000. Mr. Merchants stock was transferred at $105, while the Safford mills stock went to $103 a share.

NEW WORSTED MILL

PASSAIC, N. J., Nov. 10.—Work on the three buildings for the new Forstmann & Hufmann plant at Garfield will soon be started, as the contract for their erection has been awarded. The worsted will be spun in one factory, woven in a second, and finished in the third. The buildings will all be one story of brick, concrete and steel, and will occupy nearly 500,000 square feet of ground. This plant will be larger than the present Forstmann & Hufmann plant.

WORSTED CO. INCORPORATED

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 10.—The Bradford Worsted Spinning Co. has filed articles of incorporation, fixing its capital stock at $30,000, divided into shares of $100 each and a maximum debt of $50,000. The incorporators are John Elham W. McShallers and Henry Adresen.

EUFAULA MILLS SOLD

EUFAULA, Ala., Nov. 10.—The Eufaula cotton mills of this city have been sold under a decree issued by the chancery court. The property, which included the lot, building and all improvements, was up for the execution of a certain deed of trust which was issued July 15, 1902. The property was sold to F. W. Jennings of this city, representing the legal bondholders for the sum of $45,250. The condition was that the purchasers should be liable for any indebtedness due by the mill for taxes and insurance, amounting to $2500, and the expense of the court and attorneys' fees, amounting to $200, to be assumed by the bondholders prior to the sale. It is also known that mortgages are held against all improvements in the plant, since 1902, and on all cottons, cloth, coal oil and other supplies that have accumulated since that time, which were not included in the sale. As to what adjustment of the latter can be made is not yet known, but it is believed that some satisfactory conclusion will be reached, and the plant will again resume operations.

MILLS TO RUN NIGHTS

PAUL RIVER, Nov. 10.—The Stevens Manufacturing Co., beginning tomorrow night, will run evenings until further notice. This concern manufactures crochets and Marcelline quilts and has been running only in part for some time past.

CLUTE BROS. BRANCH OUT

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 10.—Vanderbilt and Mienel F. Clute for the stockholders of the Clute Bros. Co. of

25 CURES NEURALGIA

THAT'S WHAT A BOTTLE OF NEURALGIC ANODYNE COSTS. Why, Oh why, do people suffer from neuralgic pains when they can be quickly cured for a few cents.

Probably, when in that agonizing condition, they cannot think of the old, time tried and standard specific for neuralgia which is for sale everywhere at only 25 cents a large bottle.

NEURALGIC ANODYNE is a friend, in time of need, for it can be used internally and externally, and besides neuralgia, it cures cramps in the stomach, rheumatism, pleurisy, nervous headache, lame back, or an irritating cough. Keep it in the house all the time. If you don't know about NEURALGIC ANODYNE, ask your neighbor. Made by The Twitchell-Champ-ling Co., Portland, Me.

Lowell, Tuesday, Nov. 10, 1908.

A. G. Pollard Co.

The Store for Thrifty People.

Don't Miss the Rummage Sale

Prices in our House Furnishing Basement—all kinds of useful and ornamental household goods are selling at the following reductions:

- For 1c—Articles worth 3c to 10c
- For 2c—Articles worth 5c to 10c
- For 5c—Articles worth 10c to 25c
- For 10c—Articles worth 20c to 40c
- For 15c—Articles worth 25c to 50c
- For 20c—Articles worth 35c
- For 25c—Articles worth from 35c to $1.50
- For 35c—Articles worth 75c
- For 50c—Articles worth $1.00 to $1.75

Merrimack Street Basement

On Sale Wednesday A. M.

100 Taborets or Plant Stands

Made of solid oak, 18-in. high, 12-in. top, with strong cross pieces. A sturdy little piece of wood work that will stand hard usage. A natural quartered oak finish. Made to sell at 98c.

Only 49c Each

TOMORROW MORNING

East Section Second Floor

Try the New Plum Pudding

"All Ready All the Time"

A most exquisite dessert that can be served at the shortest notice. Made from selected wheat, best fruits and choicest spices—but the proof of the pudding is in the eating. This is fine.

15c for a Package

Special Free Demonstration in Our Tea and Coffee Dept.

Merrimack Street Basement

Coburns have certified to the secretary of state that the articles of incorporation have been extended. It is proposed to manufacture and deal in cotton waste, cotton batt, woolen and cotton goods and other fabrics. G. V. and E. W. Coburn of Albany certified that of the $50,000 capital stock of the company, $25,000 has been paid in property.

DUCK MILLS BUSY

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 10.—Prosperity is beginning to smile on the Consolidated Cotton Duck Co. again. Practically all of the company's mills in Maryland, eight in all, are running six days a week, and nearly everywhere the forces in the various mills are increased. In the last two weeks 100 additional hands have been given employment in the Maryland mills of the company. The company now has on its payrolls between 2000 and 2500 names, about 25 per cent more than it carried three months ago. The mills are running to between 75 and 80 per cent of capacity, against 50 per cent a few months ago, when the depression was at its height, and the indications are that the output will reach normal proportions before the end of the year. Orders for cotton duck yarns, twine, rope and other articles manufactured by the company are being received every day, and they come from all parts of the country, indicating that the improvement in this branch of business is widespread.

PRINT CLOTH MARKET

PAUL RIVER, Nov. 10.—The print cloth market last week was very strong, and while the total number of sales will not probably exceed 27,500 pieces, there was a very active demand for all styles of goods, but more particularly wide goods of standard and odd counts and advances ranging from a sixteenth to an eighth of a cent have been made on certain makes of goods.

The market is in a healthy state and there is every reason to believe that conditions will improve steadily, and that the weekly volume of business will show marked increases. A much greater amount of business could have been put through last week had manufacturers shown a disposition to operate at the present range of prices, and speaking generally the number and volume of contracts which was executed last week was not as large as the previous week. Manufacturers have manifested an unwillingness to go very far into the new year in view of the fact that prices continue to show advances.

The narrow goods market is firm with standards being quoted at 3 1/8 cents nominal. Trading on odd counts of narrow goods is done on the basis of 3-4 cents for regulars, this being shown by the price of 3 1/8 cents for 25-inch, 68x60s and 3 1/8 cents for 27-inch, 68x60s. While the sales have been moderate, enough of contracts to prevent an accumulation of goods. The quotations are as follows: 25-inch, 68x60s, 3 1/8 cents (nominal); 25-inch, 68x60s, 3 1/8 cents; 27-inch, 68x60s, 3 1/8 cents; 27-inch, 68x60s, 3 1/8 cents; 27-inch, 68x60s, 3 1/8 cents; 27-inch, 68x60s, 3 1/8 cents.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING

The third in the series of meetings for the teachers and members of the adult Bible classes of the Sunday schools in the Lowell district was held in the Fifth Street Baptist church last Sunday.

Down Dusters

Made from the nice soft plumage of the Ostrich.

Just the duster for flat surfaces such as Pianos, Shelves and high gloss Tables. Dusts without ever a scratch.

78c each

COTTON MILL CHARTERED

STAFFORD, Conn., Nov. 10.—The Stafford Cotton Mills have been incorporated with a capital stock of $40,000, to manufacture the plant of the name which has been incorporated heretofore. The incorporators are Messrs. J. W. Sanders, John D. Cople and W. R. Sanders. Its equipment is 4000 ring pers was the result of instructions given him by the federation at previous conventions, and he will have the support of the present convention.

63 Market Street.

SAMUEL GOMPERS

"There may be a fight on the question of allowing the federation to be brought into politics in the future, but I do not think that Mr. Gompers will be censured for the part he played in supporting Mr. Bryan."

President Gompers' report was an accounting of the work performed by the president during the past year. At the outset he declared: "There must not be permitted to grow up and be maintained a permanent army of unemployed."

The part of the report that touched on the Bucks Store and Range company's injunction case was frequently interrupted by applause. The stand taken by John Mitchell, Frank Morrison and Samuel Gompers on the injunction case was also applauded.

Mr. Gompers said in part: "It is impossible to see how we can comply fully with the court's injunction. Shall we be denied the right of free speech and free press simply be-

LIKE A MIRACLE SAYS SKIN SUFFERER

Prightful cases of eczema cured by simple oil of wintergreen. Physicians in general admit the superior value of simple medicines for all diseases.

For eczema and other skin diseases of a simple nature, nothing in the world could be simpler than the formula for D. D. Prescription (oil of wintergreen compound). In liquid form now contained in the remedy.

This wonderful remedy is composed principally of cotton oil of wintergreen, carefully combined with such well known healing and antiseptic substances as thymol, glycerine, etc.

Read this letter:

"About December, 1905, I sent to you for a bottle of your remedy, stating that I had a case of psoriasis of five years standing. After trying it, I ordered through my druggist, Mr. E. P. Griffin, six bottles of your remedy. I showed him how I was afflicted. The disease had covered my limbs, part of my body and began breaking out on my face."

"I began using D. D. Prescription according to your directions. Used five bottles and was cured sound and well. I showed my druggist again and he was surprised. Said it looked almost like a miracle to him."

"That has been almost a year ago and I see no signs of its return. I wanted to see whether it would come back or not. Before writing you my everlasting thanks for such a great remedy."

"My skin is just as soft and nice as it ever was."

R. F. D. 2, Southville, Mo.

Such a wonderful experience we feel speaks for itself. Carter & Sherburne and Falls & Burckshaw.

MAKING MINCE MEAT?

Let us furnish you with a

Food Cutter Apple Parer

And a set of

Kitchen Knives

Come to us for Carving Sets and Table Cutlery.

BARTLETT & DOW

216 Central Street

FOOTBALL WORLD

Followers of the Game are Greatly Puzzled Now

Football followers are still trying to figure it out. That Dartmouth should defeat Princeton was not such a great upset in view of the form the two teams had been showing; in fact, it was not an upset at all. For Dartmouth has had as much individual strength as Princeton all fall and has been playing more consistently. It was only Princeton's prestige that made the Tigers the likely winners in the minds of football followers in general. Dartmouth, however, wasn't shy on that possession. Dartmouth has beaten Princeton before. It has checked Harvard a couple of times and has been some pumpkins in football for some time. There was really no reason why the Green should not have been considered to have an equal chance with the Orange and Black. That fact is clearer to some of us now than it was before the game. Harvard's thorough defeat of the Indians, Yale's defeat by Colgate, Yale's inability to beat Brown and being actually outplayed by the Bruntons, and the small score of the Army against Springfield Training School, were the big surprises of the day. The Army's small score is partly accounted for by the number of substitutes used, while Amherst was in better form, improving and has been steadily improving and was in better form against Cornell than she has been this season. The Navy after being downed by the Indians came back with a big score against Villanova, bigger than was to be expected after the stiff battles Villanova had given Carlisle, Pennsylvania, and Princeton.

That Harvard and the Navy should play a tie—in which the Navy outplayed the Crimson—and that the Indians should beat the Navy and then be smothered by Harvard is one of those combinations of happenings that are more freakish on the surface than in reality. It would appear that Harvard has been making big strides and that the Indians haven't gone ahead any since they played Pennsylvania.

Needful Knowledge

LOWELL PEOPLE SHOULD LEARN TO DETECT THE APPROACH OF KIDNEY DISEASE

The symptoms of kidney trouble are so unmistakable that they leave no ground for doubt. Sick kidneys excrete a thick, cloudy, offensive urine, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding. The back aches constantly, headaches and dizzy spells may occur and the victim is often weighed down by a feeling of languor and fatigue. Neglect these warnings and there is danger of dropsy, Bright's Disease, or diabetes. Any one of these symptoms is warning enough to begin treating the kidneys at once. Delay often proves fatal.

You can use no better remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's Lowell proof:

D. H. Dickson, living at 131 Worthen st., Lowell, Mass., says: "My wife used Doan's Kidney Pills and they proved very beneficial to her. She complained of a great deal of backache which was accompanied by a kidney weakness of a distressing nature. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills for her from Ellingwood & Co.'s drug store, and the contents of one box used as directed, disposed of her trouble. She has been in good health since and we are glad to recommend the remedy that brought about this change in her condition."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Peter Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

and unsoftened football this fall, more than last year up to this time in the second season of the new rules. Harvard and Pennsylvania showed something like sustained finish on Saturday and the Navy's work has been fairly consistently good; but for the most part there have been only flashes of finished playing. Such, of course, is bound to be the case in a measure in the preparation part of the season, but a general readiness to grasp the possibilities of the new games and be ready for them could be expected by this time without expecting too much. Any shortcomings in that respect are the fault of the players, not the game. Yet there have been, regarding circumstances this season which could not be guarded against and which did not exist last season. A good deal of warm and wet weather and mishaps which have prevented coaches from getting even a reasonable number of the same men together have interfered with plans and development. Specific cases are to be found at Yale and Princeton.

Give a team two good ends and a well executed forward pass or outside kick and you give it an equipment which goes a good way toward winning modern football games. Conversely, the absence of these things is a big handicap. Power in line attack is an essential, but we had an instance last Saturday of two teams being practically evenly matched in that way, but one of them with better ends and the forward pass and winning because of that superiority. Harvard, Yale and Princeton save their best plays for the games are their great selves for those games are their great objective, yet there does not have to be any mysterious covering up of good ends or ability to deal with the forward pass even in other games. Yale, big four.

WILFRED BARRETT

Won His Bout With "War" Eagle

LEWISTON, Me., Nov. 10.—At city hall last night "War Eagle" of Rochester, N. Y., wrestled an hour and twenty-four minutes before being thrown by Wilfred Barrett of Lewiston.

The match was under the auspices of the Canadian Athletic club and was one of the best ever seen here.

For the first hour of the first round honors were even, both men struggling fiercely and both showing great science and endurance, the Indian being very quick in extricating himself from what seemed almost impossible positions.

In the second round "War Eagle" persisted in slugging, after being warned several times by the referee, and after nine minutes of wrestling and punching the referee declared a foul and awarded the match to Barrett. The first fall was won with a head lock and body hold. John O'Brien of Lewiston was the referee.

BILLERICA NEWS

TATTERED BATTLEFLAG

Mrs. Rebecca Bennett Warren of Boston recently contributed a number of articles to the Billerica Historical society. One of the gifts is a torn and tattered American flag, the history of which is very interesting.

During the youth of Mrs. Warren and her sister, the late Mrs. Ellen Bennett Holden, the two sisters were pupils at the Charlesown Ursuline convent, where classic instruction not usual in common schools was given. A few of the school books were among the relics.

Another recent contribution to the Historical society has been made by Mrs. Clara E. Sexton of Somerville, among them being the welcome address to the returned soldiers by Dr. Frank E. Bundy, who was at that time a resident physician.

The special officers of the town of Billerica have been given permits by the selectmen to carry loaded firearms.

Matthew Anniversary

The 21st anniversary of the organization of the Father Mathew Total Abstinence society of North Billerica will be held Saturday evening, Nov. 21.

THE GERMAN ENVOY AND HIS AMERICAN WIFE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Count Johann von Bernstorff, who has been selected by Emperor William to succeed the late Baron Speck von Sternburg as ambassador to America, has been in the diplomatic service since 1899. At present he represents Germany in Egypt and at various times has occupied posts at Constantinople, Belgrade, Dresden, St. Petersburg and London. Countess von Bernstorff is an American woman, daughter of the late Edward Luckmeyer of New York. They were married in 1887.

TEAM STOLEN THE HORSE SHOW

Robert E. Crowley's Rig Strayed or Stolen

A horse and carriage belonging to Robert E. Crowley were stolen from in front of Crowley's laboratory in Thordike street shortly before 6 o'clock last night.

Mr. Crowley had been in the building but a short time and upon coming out was surprised to find that his outfit was missing. The local police were notified and the latter notified the police of the surrounding towns.

Shortly after midnight the horse and carriage were discovered in Thordike street. It is thought that some person took the rig, went for a drive and later returned the outfit.

MORSE BANKRUPT

Was Supposed to be Worth $20,000,000

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Charles W. Morse, who two years ago was rated as worth upward of $20,000,000 yesterday swore under oath that he had not enough money or securities left from his vast fortune to pay his debts.

This revelation was made when Morse's attorneys appeared in the U. S. circuit court of appeals to argue for the admission of Morse to bail.

Morse, who has been sentenced to 15 years imprisonment at hard labor in the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., was not permitted to leave the Tombs yesterday, but an affidavit made by him was read. The motion was argued before Judges Lacombe, Ward and Cox, and decision was reserved.

It had not been expected that Morse would make the plea that he was bankrupt, as ever since the financial panic which swept the greater part of his fortune away, he has maintained that he would be able to adjust his affairs to the satisfaction of all creditors, and Judge Hough, in refusing to grant an application for bail after he had been sentenced, said that one prisoner for retaining bail was that the prisoner was worth $20,000,000, and that it would not inconvenience him to furnish bail.

JOHN J. HAYES

HAS SIGNED TO MEET PIETRI DORANDO

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—John J. Hayes, winner of the Marathon race at the Olympic games here last summer, has signed a contract, it is announced, to meet Pietri Dorando, the Italian runner who was half carried and half pushed across the tape in front of the American and was disqualified. The agreement, which Hayes has signed, calls for a practically a re-running of the event in Madison Square Garden, this city, on Wednesday, Nov. 25, Thanksgiving eve. It is stipulated that the full Marathon distance—26 miles, three hundred and eighty-five yards—be run. Dorando will start for New York tomorrow on the Teutonic.

GYPSY GANG

HAS LOCATED ON DUMMER ST. AND THERE'S TROUBLE

Two male gypsies made an earnest but unsuccessful attempt to rent a tenement in Market street yesterday morning. They seemed very desirous of obtaining one in the vicinity of the Greek colony, but were told that they applied they were not wanted.

After an hour of tramping around they got disgusted and went on the search. Upon being questioned as to the whereabouts of the possessor of the tribe, the men were told that, but before leaving one of them pointed in the direction of Dorchester and it was taken for granted that the others were in the vicinity of the borough across the river.

In the afternoon the gypsies returned and renewed the search and were successful. They procured a tenement in a yard on Dummer street. And last evening they were seen by a number of many jests from the people of the neighborhood. The tribe consists of several grown ups with four children complete the latter part of the family.

The people are impatient over the moving of the tribe into the locality and there is some talk of applying to the police authorities for their expulsion.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trade with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Ferousness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of

Dr. J. C. Fletcher

The Kind You Have Always Bought

In Use For Over 30 Years.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 27 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

THE ALPINE CLUB

Gave St. John's Team a Trouncing

The Alpines gave the St. John's team an awful trouncing last night in a game in the Catholic Park league.

The Alpines started off with a rush in the first string and kept up the good work until the end of the game when the score stood 187 to 125 in favor of the Alpines.

In the Minor league the Chestnut Club defeated the Lincolns, taking two of the three strings.

Teams representing the upper repair shop and machine shop of the Massachusetts mills met on the alleys last night and the former team defeated the latter by 29 runs.

SIX HOT ROUNDS

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 10.—Morris Harris, the colored heavyweight of New York, last night fought six hot rounds with Tony Ross, the Italian heavyweight, before 2500 persons in old city hall.

It was a return battle, the men having quarrelled bitterly over a previous fight here and they met again to settle matters.

Both men fought carefully but fast, each trying for the knockout. The first three rounds brought nothing definite, but in the fourth Harris started in to finish matters, but he ran into one of the Italian's hard blows which fazed him.

In the fifth and sixth rounds Ross appeared to have the colored giant going, but was not clever enough to put him out. In the last minute of the last round Harris was indeed in distress, being forced to clinch and hold on to avoid going out.

MINOR LEAGUE

Chestnut Club

	1	2	3	T
Farrell	57	102	106	265
W. Kelley	77	89	101	267
Devlin	119	96	105	301
D. Denahue	91	85	70	246
McManey	88	91	82	261
Totals	410	457	473	1340

LINEUPS

	1	2	3	T
Kimball	84	81	86	251
Stanley	69	94	81	244
Gaudette	72	77	85	234
McManey	88	88	105	281
Duffy	88	92	99	279
Totals	410	457	473	1340

MILL TEAMS ROLLED

Upper League Shop

	1	2	3	T
T. Tarmey	77	77	88	242
C. Brierley	95	67	80	242
J. Leblanc	68	70	78	216
A. Henderson	77	70	70	217
J. Kibride	88	85	85	258
Totals	358	359	336	1053

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

The Encampment Branch of the Odd Fellows met last night under the auspices of the Encampment. The attendance was very large and a number of the members of the board of grand officers from out of town were present, and several interesting speeches were made.

Among those seated on the platform were the following officers, all of whom addressed the body: Grand Patriarch, Louis A. Cook, Grand Inspector, William A. Cook, Past Grand Patriarch, George A. Wetherhead, Chief Patriarch, Charles T. Stinson, Senior Warden, John P. Stinson, Junior Warden, and Grand Patriarch, John P. Stinson.

The meeting was a very successful one, and the members of the board of grand officers from out of town were present, and several interesting speeches were made.

The meeting was a very successful one, and the members of the board of grand officers from out of town were present, and several interesting speeches were made.

The meeting was a very successful one, and the members of the board of grand officers from out of town were present, and several interesting speeches were made.

The meeting was a very successful one, and the members of the board of grand officers from out of town were present, and several interesting speeches were made.

The meeting was a very successful one, and the members of the board of grand officers from out of town were present, and several interesting speeches were made.

The meeting was a very successful one, and the members of the board of grand officers from out of town were present, and several interesting speeches were made.

The meeting was a very successful one, and the members of the board of grand officers from out of town were present, and several interesting speeches were made.

The meeting was a very successful one, and the members of the board of grand officers from out of town were present, and several interesting speeches were made.

The meeting was a very successful one, and the members of the board of grand officers from out of town were present, and several interesting speeches were made.

The meeting was a very successful one, and the members of the board of grand officers from out of town were present, and several interesting speeches were made.

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Our Annual Sale of

REMNANTS FINE SILK VELVETS

WILL COMMENCE

Thursday Morning Next

10,000 YARDS

Including Plain Velvets, Paon Velvets, Chiffon and Panné Velvets, in all the leading colors and blacks.

QUALITIES WORTH FROM $1 TO $250, ONLY

59c a Yard

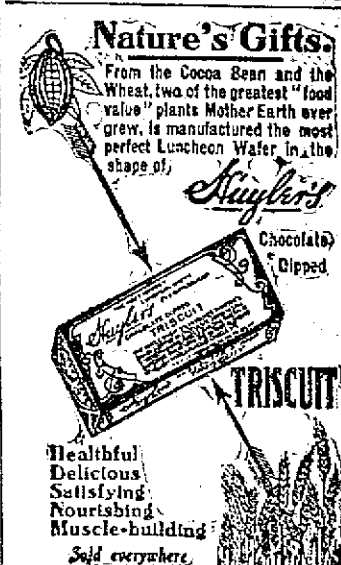

SEE MERRIMACK ST. WINDOW

See Merrimack St. Window

See Merrimack St. Window

See Merrimack St. Window

See Merrimack St. Window

Healthful, Delicious, Satisfying, Nourishing, Muscle-building. Sold everywhere.

Allan Line Royal Mail Steamers

Only Direct Service between Boston and Scotland.

Only Direct Service between Boston and North of Ireland.

Only Direct Service from Glasgow.

Special arrangements for comfort and safety. Second cabin, Glasgow, Derry or Galway, $40; third class, $17.50; Glasgow, Derry, Belfast and Liverpool. Entire rooms reserved for married couples. Children 12 to 15 years, half fare.

DENIS MURPHY, 18 APPLETON ST. OR H. & A. Allan, 110 State St., Boston

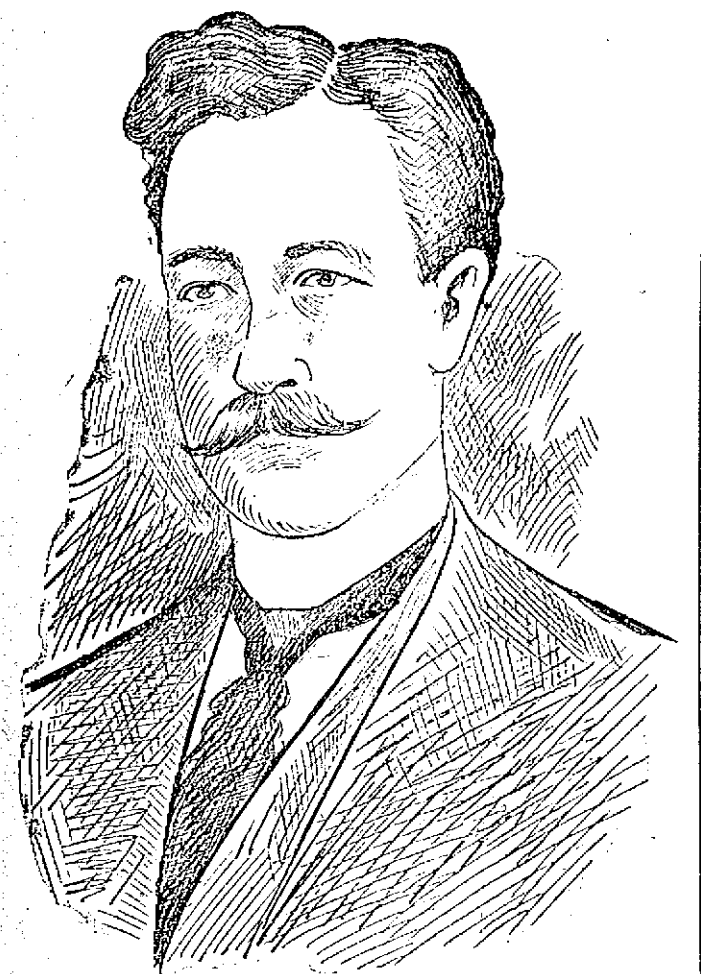

BAY STATE DYE WORKS

Acknowledged to be the best place to have your fall and winter dyeing and cleaning done, and now is the time to come in to make the arrangements. It will make it easier for the garments you will also put in it as it's work will be more carefully looked after than if the rush was on. The wise one always takes advantage of these conditions and thereby saves the best possible service. Start at once and send to your wearing apparel in the order.

Bay State Dye Works

53 PRESCOTT STREET.

SHOT DEAD IN STREET

Ex-Senator Carmack Slain at Nashville, Tenn.

THE LATE EX-SENATOR E. W. CARMACK OF TENNESSEE

Pistol Duel Fought at Short Range — His Assailant, Robbin
Cooper, Was Wounded and is in Hospital—Slayer's Father
Scored by the Editor

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 10.—Ex-U. S. Senator Edward W. Carmack, editor of the Tennesseean, was shot and killed yesterday afternoon in 7th avenue, by Robbin Cooper, a son of Col. Duncan C. Cooper.

Mr. Carmack was going north in 7th avenue, and Col. Cooper and his son were approaching 7th avenue on Union street. Soon after they came in sight of one another the shooting began.

Robbin Cooper, it is said, fired three shots and Carmack one or two. Col. Duncan C. Cooper, it is said, drew a pistol, but did not fire.

Senator Carmack fell to the ground with the trio of shots and died instantly. Robbin Cooper was shot in the right shoulder, but was not severely hurt.

DR. EDWARDS'
Dandelion
Best Known Remedy

FOR Rheumatism and Malaria. Stimulates the kidneys so as to eliminate the uric acid that causes Rheumatism and Kidney Disease, regulates a Torpid Liver; acts gently and without griping on the bowels; disinfects the entire alimentary canal and produces a clean, smooth skin and clear complexion, by eliminating all poisons from the system.

Unequalled for Dyspepsia and all Stomach trouble; is purely vegetable, and is so guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act. 25c a box at

ELLINGWOOD & CO.,
Lowell, Mass.
Send postal for free sample to
Schenck Chemical Co., 31-35 Franklin
St., New York City, Manufacturers.

RESIN SIZED
SHEATHING PAPER
1 1/2c per lb.
$30 per ton

W. T. S. Bartlett
653-659 MERRIMACK ST.
The Uptown Hardware Store

Drop a Postal Prompt Delivery
Telephone Connection

CHARLES E. DICKSON
CUSTOM MADE SHIRTS
"Have Comfort"

F. L. Wyeth's Old Stand, Prescott St.
Lowell, Mass.

10,000 PERSONS

Present at Launching of the North Dakota TodayFirst American Dreadnought
Turned Out at Fore River
Ship Yard at Quincy

QUINCY, Nov. 10.—More than 10,000 people, including representatives of the national government and those of two states, gathered at the yards of the Fore River Shipbuilding Co. today to see the launching of America's most powerful sea-fighter and her christening for the state of North Dakota. The November sun rose brightly over the hills of Weymouth and was reflected upon the red coated hull of the great leviathan of iron and steel resting on the shores of the little tidal stream where centuries ago the Massachusetts Indians fashioned their war canoes of birch and cedar.

While the North Dakota follows nearly a dozen great vessels launched at the Fore River yards her advent into the sea today was regarded as establishing a new epoch in the history of the United States navy because of her tremendous strength both on the attack and on the defense by reason of her all-royal great gun battery and the additional thickness of her armor.

For several months the North Dakota has been known as the American Dreadnought but this fact has not saved her from severe criticism in which President Roosevelt has also joined. Although when in commission the North Dakota will undoubtedly be the maximum of American battleship construction her prestige in the world will soon be dimmed for there are already in England, France, Germany, Russia and Japan more than a dozen ships of a superior fighting ability now under construction.

The christening party came on specially from North Dakota including Gov. John Burke and Miss Mary Benton together with a number of officials and many ladies.

Arrangements for seeing the launching were ample, there being many vantage points about the yard and along the sides of the river which is quite narrow.

The guests of the yard came out directly to the scene. An hour or two before noon, the hour set for the launching, nearly every vantage point was taken.

OUR FIRST DREADNOUGHT
QUINCY, Mass., Nov. 10.—When the firings, the decks were bare and lacked the martial aspect supplied by the great guns and secondary batteries, which are to be installed later. Even the great boilers the fighting ship had not been installed in accordance with the usual custom of construction, and as a part of the preparations for the launching, puffy little tugs were in waiting to tow the gigantic yet helpless craft, alongside the pier, at the yard.

Before the conclusion of the 34 1/2 months allowed by the government for delivery, however, the hull launched today will present a different aspect. By that time ten 12-inch breech loading, long range rifles will have been placed in position, as well as fourteen 6-inch, rapid fire guns; three 3-pound, and a like number of 1-pound semi-automatic guns; two 3-inch field pieces, two machine guns of 50 caliber; and two 21-inch submerged torpedo tubes. This constitutes the active armament of the battleship. Protective armor to the extent of about eight inches will cover practically every available spot which might be reached by an enemy's guns, and, as a result of the recent naval conference, many minor details of additional protection will also be added.

When placed in commission the North Dakota will be 513 feet long on the load water line, with a breadth of 85 feet, 2 1/2 inches at the same point. The length over all will be about 518 feet 8 inches. The battleship will have a displacement of 20,000 tons, 2000 in excess of the original British Dreadnought. It is estimated that a speed of more than 21 knots will be attained on her trial, and that the battleship's horse power will exceed 25,000. Unlike her sister ship, the Delaware, now under construction at Newport News, Va., the North Dakota will be fitted with Curtis turbine engine. Including officers, the crew will number more than 900 men. It is estimated that when formally taken over by the government, the North Dakota will have cost at least $7,000,000, the contract price of her hull and machinery alone being $4,377,000.

Although the American battleship construction record is broken by the great prow of the new battleship North Dakota struck the waters of Fore river, where she was launched today. The United States navy received formally the bulky body of the first fighting ship of the so-called Dreadnought class. Incidentally, a new record for speed in the first stage of battleship construction is also established, inasmuch as only 282 working days have been employed from the time of laying the keel until the day of the launching.

As the massive hull of the North Dakota stood upon the ways ready for launching it presented none of the warlike appearance of the finished battleship. Save for a few temporary North Dakota's builders, it does not closely approach that held by the British navy in the construction of the first Dreadnought. The keel of that vessel was laid in July, 1905, and on Oct. 2 of the same year the vessel was launched and exactly a year later the ship had its standardization trial. It is expected that the North Dakota will be ready for its first trial trip about the latter part of August, 1910, although the actual placing of the battleship into commission may be delayed.

To Capt. Charles J. Badger, U. S. N., recently superintendent of the naval academy at Annapolis, will go the honor of being the first commanding officer of the premier "Dreadnought" of the United States navy.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" paid its annual visit to Lowell yesterday and two performances were given at the Opera House to pretty good sized audiences. The piece is the same old play with which we are all acquainted and it has the same delight and entertainment for the children. There is but one Topsy and she is the same interesting character we know so well. Estlin Legree is just as cruel and bitter, and excites the hatred of his audience as he did when first he appeared on the stage. Edgar F. Deane took the part of Uncle Tom and was very acceptable, while Ida Edgar was

More Time for Other Things

A Modern Glenwood
"Makes Cooking Easy"
M. F. Gookin Co., 35 Market St. Lowell

good as Eliza. The piece is in four acts and the company is all right.

"HUMAN HEARTS"

"Human Hearts," the "Days" of the Arkansas hills, will be produced at the Opera House, Thursday, Nov. 12 for three days. Like Shore Acres and the Old Homestead, this only increases its hold upon the hearts of the people. The prattle of an innocent child, the tears of an old blind mother, the strong love of a simple country girl, the truth of a half-wit, the love of an old negro, the passion of an old woman and the tender memory of a dead mother of the past of the governor of Arkansas, are all cleverly intermingled by the deft hand of the author of this absorbing tale of the Arkansas hills. Each succeeding season of this thrilling play's annual production has induced the management to engage for this season's production one of the strongest companies ever organized in one cast.

YIDDISH PLAYERS

The Edwin A. Reik's all-star Yiddish company, headed by four of the most celebrated Yiddish players and singers, Mr. Jacob Shibert, Miss Anna Simon, Mr. Noah J. Simon and Miss. Lillian Russell, will be here on Monday, Nov. 16, at the Opera House, presenting the historical and biblical Yiddish operetta "The Fall of Jerusalem," the first time in this city. These players and this play have never before been seen in this city but have scored a tremendous success wherever they have appeared. Miss Anna Simon, the leading lady and prima donna of this company, has a mezzo-soprano voice which is rarely heard on any stage.

LILLIAN RUSSELL

Lillian Russell played in London for two years shortly after her early establishment as a stage favorite in New York. She went over to England in the spring of 1888 to create the role of "Virginia" in "Paul and Virginia," at the Gaiety theatre, and remained there for two years, appearing at three different theatres in that city. She then came to America and played at the Gaiety theatre to play "Polly Pickens," in "Polly," and at the Empire theatre to play "Polly Pickens," in "Polly." She returned to America in 1885, making her appearance as "Polly" at the Casino, but she did not appear again until 1894 that Miss Russell went to London. This time she played at the Gaiety theatre, and then at the Gaiety theatre, and then at the Gaiety theatre. She remained for the year in London and came back to America to stay until this season. There are no more appearances of Miss Russell in the near future as a comedienne.

GRACE GEORGE

Ruth Benson, who is with Grace George this season in "Divorced," probably been seen in more foreign countries than any young American actress now on the stage. Besides appearing in South America, Miss Benson has also to her credit engagements in South Africa and England.

ROBERT EDESON

One of the early bookings at the Opera House is Robert Edeson in his new play, "The Call of the North," which was first produced in Providence, R. I., for one performance last year and which is opening attraction this year at the Hudson theatre, New York City. Mr. Edeson will be seen here soon after the close of his Boston engagement.

"THE MERRY WIDOW"

Manager Henry W. Savage, who is to present "The Merry Widow," at the Opera House immediately following the close of the company's engagement in "Divorced," is now in Europe on a combined business and pleasure trip. Colonel Savage sailed from New York the afternoon of the day that his "Devil Co." opened in Lowell.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

The Academy of Music, under new management, and under a new policy, practically re-opened its doors yesterday to the largest Monday house seen in the theatre in many years. The new lessee is Hon. Joseph J. Flynn and the new resident manager is William O'Neill of Boston, two names to conjure by in the theatrical and amusement line. The theatre henceforth will present high class vaudeville and up-to-date moving pictures, with a feature never known in vaudeville before in Lowell, namely, a mid-week change of program; that is to say, an entire new bill of four vaudeville acts and three complete rolls of the best moving pictures available. Every Monday and Thursday, an exceptionally expensive experiment is tried by the management in an honest endeavor to make the Academy of Music the best popular priced theatre in Lowell. The program with which the theatre opened and which will be presented until Wednesday night includes Miss Lillian Russell, a former resident of Lowell, but now a choir singer in Lawrence, in illustrated songs. Miss Bagshaw was most enthusiastically received last evening. Then there are the Kennard brothers in an uproariously funny pantomime melodrama act, Miss Lillian Russell, a former resident of Lowell, but now a choir singer in Lawrence, in illustrated songs. Miss Bagshaw was most enthusiastically received last evening.

THAT'S WHAT YOUR CHILDREN WILL SAY WHEN THEY ONCE TASTE SUNSHINE BISCUITS.

One package will give your folks a new idea of how good biscuits can be.

And common biscuits, baked in old-time ways, will never taste good after that.

Sunshine Biscuits

From the Bakery with a Thousand Windows

We've spent 70 years in learning how to make biscuits like these. Yet they were impossible until we built this model bakery.

Now we have the world's finest bakery. The white tile ovens are on the top floor. Air and sunshine are everywhere.

You'll be astounded at these new creations of the baker's art. They are immensely good.

Sodaettes, 5c

These are the "Sunshine" soda crackers. Try them today—else our Boston Grahams, or our Oyster Crackers, 5c.

This is the first real Chinese story of love and adventure ever put into a moving picture, and so elaborate its production, and so novel is its theme, that this film is destined to be one of the big hits of the season.

The new bill on Thursday will include three entirely new films of moving pictures, and for vaudeville there will be Miss Bagshaw in illustrated songs, the Fritz dog show, the Roman trio and the Galtain sisters. The most interesting feature of the new policy of the Academy of Music is the fact that the best seat is only 10 cents and one may see an entire performance by dropping in at any time between 1 and 10 in the afternoon and 7 and 10 in the evening.

THEATRE VOYONS

"The Actor's Child," one of the pictures on the new bill at the Theatre Voyons today bids fair to take first prize for American pictures of the month. "Bear Hunting in Canada" is a complete picture of a hunting trip in the northwest after black bear. The trail of a hunter, his killing and skinning are all shown and the picture is an excellent one of an almost unknown sport.

"The Clown Doctor," is a falling, it is a novelty and very catchy. "I Love You Like the Rose, Love the Dew," is a fine piece of music.

STAR THEATRE

Patrons of the Star theatre have been treated to excellent entertainment since taking pictures were introduced at the house, and this week the subject, "Life is a Game of Cards," is talked and depicted. Other films are "The Paris Fire Brigade," "Tricked by the Constable," and "The Birth of a Nation." The latter is a masterpiece of acting and is being sung by Harry O'Neill, "Baby" Curry answers many encores. "Every Star Meets Its Fate." The amateurs will hold forth tonight.

HATHAWAY'S THEATRE

There's a well of mirth and bushels of fun at Hathaway's theatre this week. It is probably not the very best bill ever presented at this cosy play house, but our memory fails to hark back to a better bill. "A Session at School," by Sam J. Curtis & Company is the piece de resistance. Talk about your bottled sunshine but it isn't in it with the school session at Hathaway's. Curtis is a great switch in the community and he's the gawk and the funny ball at school. Just because Taft was elected and Bryan defeated, doesn't make making fun in the same old way. One can't even look at him without laughing and he kicks out a whole lot of silly stuff that is certainly very funny. Curtis has been here before but he has enlarged on his entertainment and today he has a feature that would do credit to any bill in vaudeville. Sam in school, is "Ham Slivers," a chip of the old block-head, and if there was as much fun to the square inch in Ham's old man as there is in Ham, the old man's cronies must have had a lot of fun. The school teacher in this little one-act is a corking fine fellow when he's going away from you. His name is Eli Faust and as a drowsy, Solomon Slow sort of school teacher he's all to the good. "There are three school misers in the act and while one looks at Curtis, wondering when the animal trainer is going to feed it, one's thoughts are broken in upon by a girl with just about as sweet a voice as one could well imagine. Here's the way that the dear little school misers are mentioned on the program: "Susie Campbell, a Scotch Broth," Miss M. Hickory, a tender fishing, "Belle Vincent. That's all we have to say about Sam J. Curtis & Co., but if their act alone is not worth the price of the best seat at Hathaway's this week you include three entirely new films of moving pictures, and for vaudeville there will be Miss Bagshaw in illustrated songs, the Fritz dog show, the Roman trio and the Galtain sisters. The most interesting feature of the new policy of the Academy of Music is the fact that the best seat is only 10 cents and one may see an entire performance by dropping in at any time between 1 and 10 in the afternoon and 7 and 10 in the evening.

MERCHANTS

You desire prosperity and the patronage of the people, you desire to build up a firm, substantial and successful business in Lowell, and to do so you depend on the masses, do you not? Of course you do. No one can be independent; every one depends on the patronage of those around him.

The Lowell Sun is the people's paper. It is universally read.

Seek the attention of the people through the advertising columns of the people's paper, and prosperity is yours.

The Sun has by far the largest circulation in Lowell. Advertise first of all in The Sun, then in the other papers if you choose.

It is in every respect

LOWELL'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

may pass us by without speaking when you meet us in the street.

Frank McNish and Penfold, booked as the comedian and the singer, are very good. McNish used to be with Primrose & West, and he was always very funny and very clever. His partner is a young fellow and he makes good with the old minstrel man.

Sam Elton is down on the paper as "the man who made the Shah laugh, or the funny fellow who does funny things. Sam Elton certainly does funny things. A fellow who can turn back flips, card wheels and tumble over chairs and tables with his pockets full of eggs and never break an egg, is some pumpkins in vaudeville. Sam Elton does that and a thousand times more. The way he juggles an armful of plates is a caution, and so far as speech is concerned he's not the least bit noisy; in fact, he doesn't speak a single word.

Annie and Effie Conley sing splendidly and dance well, too. To be honest about it, Annie and Effie are about as good in their line as we have seen in Lowell. They sing catchy songs and they sing them well and the refinement of their entertainment is decidedly refreshing. They sing one sweet Irish song in costume, and it's just the best ever. They indulge in an old country dance and a quaint little negro ballad, all of which are just as good as they can be. More luck to Annie and Effie! Conlon and Steele open the show. They introduce singing, comedy and trick and solo piano playing. They are real good.

The three Du Ball brothers can dance their way right into one's heart. They are certainly the real velvet when it comes to the manipulation of the lower extremities. They are great dancers.

Al Rayno's one dozen buildups are great performers. You wouldn't take our word for it if we told you about some of the tricks that these almost speaking canines perform. They must be seen to be appreciated.

The moving pictures are new and good. Performances will be given every afternoon and evening throughout the week. Saturday afternoon Sam Curtis and his company will hold a reception after the show. Souvenirs will be given away.

That's what your children will say when they once taste Sunshine Biscuits.

One package will give your folks a new idea of how good biscuits can be.

And common biscuits, baked in old-time ways, will never taste good after that.

Sunshine Biscuits

From the Bakery with a Thousand Windows

We've spent 70 years in learning how to make biscuits like these. Yet they were impossible until we built this model bakery.

Now we have the world's finest bakery. The white tile ovens are on the top floor. Air and sunshine are everywhere.

You'll be astounded at these new creations of the baker's art. They are immensely good.

Sodaettes, 5c

These are the "Sunshine" soda crackers. Try them today—else our Boston Grahams, or our Oyster Crackers, 5c.

This is the first real Chinese story of love and adventure ever put into a moving picture, and so elaborate its production, and so novel is its theme, that this film is destined to be one of the big hits of the season.

The new bill on Thursday will include three entirely new films of moving pictures, and for vaudeville there will be Miss Bagshaw in illustrated songs, the Fritz dog show, the Roman trio and the Galtain sisters. The most interesting feature of the new policy of the Academy of Music is the fact that the best seat is only 10 cents and one may see an entire performance by dropping in at any time between 1 and 10 in the afternoon and 7 and 10 in the evening.

THEATRE VOYONS

"The Actor's Child," one of the pictures on the new bill at the Theatre Voyons today bids fair to take first prize for American pictures of the month. "Bear Hunting in Canada" is a complete picture of a hunting trip in the northwest after black bear. The trail of a hunter, his killing and skinning are all shown and the picture is an excellent one of an almost unknown sport.

"The Clown Doctor," is a falling, it is a novelty and very catchy. "I Love You Like the Rose, Love the Dew," is a fine piece of music.

STAR THEATRE

Patrons of the Star theatre have been treated to excellent entertainment since taking pictures were introduced at the house, and this week the subject, "Life is a Game of Cards," is talked and depicted. Other films are "The Paris Fire Brigade," "Tricked by the Constable," and "The Birth of a Nation." The latter is a masterpiece of acting and is being sung by Harry O'Neill, "Baby" Curry answers many encores. "Every Star Meets Its Fate." The amateurs will hold forth tonight.

HATHAWAY'S THEATRE

There's a well of mirth and bushels of fun at Hathaway's theatre this week. It is probably not the very best bill ever presented at this cosy play house, but our memory fails to hark back to a better bill. "A Session at School," by Sam J. Curtis & Company is the piece de resistance. Talk about your bottled sunshine but it isn't in it with the school session at Hathaway's. Curtis is a great switch in the community and he's the gawk and the funny ball at school. Just because Taft was elected and Bryan defeated, doesn't make making fun in the same old way. One can't even look at him without laughing and he kicks out a whole lot of silly stuff that is certainly very funny. Curtis has been here before but he has enlarged on his entertainment and today he has a feature that would do credit to any bill in vaudeville. Sam in school, is "Ham Slivers," a chip of the old block-head, and if there was as much fun to the square inch in Ham's old man as there is in Ham, the old man's cronies must have had a lot of fun. The school teacher in this little one-act is a corking fine fellow when he's going away from you. His name is Eli Faust and as a drowsy, Solomon Slow sort of school teacher he's all to the good. "There are three school misers in the act and while one looks at Curtis, wondering when the animal trainer is going to feed it, one's thoughts are broken in upon by a girl with just about as sweet a voice as one could well imagine. Here's the way that the dear little school misers are mentioned on the program: "Susie Campbell, a Scotch Broth," Miss M. Hickory, a tender fishing, "Belle Vincent. That's all we have to say about Sam J. Curtis & Co., but if their act alone is not worth the price of the best seat at Hathaway's this week you

Mama, Get More

That's what your children will say when they once taste Sunshine Biscuits.

One package will give your folks a new idea of how good biscuits can be.

And common biscuits, baked in old-time ways, will never taste good after that.

Sunshine Biscuits

From the Bakery with a Thousand Windows

We've spent 70 years in learning how to make biscuits like these. Yet they were impossible until we built this model bakery.

Now we have the world's finest bakery. The white tile ovens are on the top floor. Air and sunshine are everywhere.

You'll be astounded at these new creations of the baker's art. They are immensely good.

Sodaettes, 5c

These are the "Sunshine" soda crackers. Try them today—else our Boston Grahams, or our Oyster Crackers, 5c.

This is the first real Chinese story of love and adventure ever put into a moving picture, and so elaborate its production, and so novel is its theme, that this film is destined to be one of the big hits of the season.

The new bill on Thursday will include three entirely new films of moving pictures, and for vaudeville there will be Miss Bagshaw in illustrated songs, the Fritz dog show, the Roman trio and the Galtain sisters. The most interesting feature of the new policy of the Academy of Music is the fact that the best seat is only 10 cents and one may see an entire performance by dropping in at any time between 1 and 10 in the afternoon and 7 and 10 in the evening.

THEATRE VOYONS

"The Actor's Child," one of the pictures on the new bill at the Theatre Voyons today bids fair to take first prize for American pictures of the month. "Bear Hunting in Canada" is a complete picture of a hunting trip in the northwest after black bear. The trail of a hunter, his killing and skinning are all shown and the picture is an excellent one of an almost unknown sport.

"The Clown Doctor," is a falling, it is a novelty and very catchy. "I Love You Like the Rose, Love the Dew," is a fine piece of music.

STAR THEATRE

Patrons of the Star theatre have been treated to excellent entertainment since taking pictures were introduced at the house, and this week the subject, "Life is a Game of Cards," is talked and depicted. Other films are "The Paris Fire Brigade," "Tricked by the Constable," and "The Birth of a Nation." The latter is a masterpiece of acting and is being sung by Harry O'Neill, "Baby" Curry answers many encores. "Every Star Meets Its Fate." The amateurs will hold forth tonight.

HATHAWAY'S THEATRE

There's a well of mirth and bushels of fun at Hathaway's theatre this week. It is probably not the very best bill ever presented at this cosy play house, but our memory fails to hark back to a better bill. "A Session at School," by Sam J. Curtis & Company is the piece de resistance. Talk about your bottled sunshine but it isn't in it with the school session at Hathaway's. Curtis is a great switch in the community and he's the gawk and the funny ball at school. Just because Taft was elected and Bryan defeated, doesn't make making fun in the same old way. One can't even look at him without laughing and he kicks out a whole lot of silly stuff that is certainly very funny. Curtis has been here before but he has enlarged on his entertainment and today he has a feature that would do credit to any bill in vaudeville. Sam in school, is "Ham Slivers," a chip of the old block-head, and if there was as much fun to the square inch in Ham's old man as there is in Ham, the old man's cronies must have had a lot of fun. The school teacher in this little one-act is a corking fine fellow when he's going away from you. His name is Eli Faust and as a drowsy, Solomon Slow sort of school teacher he's all to the good. "There are three school misers in the act and while one looks at Curtis, wondering when the animal trainer is going to feed it, one's thoughts are broken in upon by a girl with just about as sweet a voice as one could well imagine. Here's the way that the dear little school misers are mentioned on the program: "Susie Campbell, a Scotch Broth," Miss M. Hickory, a tender fishing, "Belle Vincent. That's all we have to say about Sam J. Curtis & Co., but if their act alone is not worth the price of the best seat at Hathaway's this week you

Mama, Get More

That's what your children will say when they once taste Sunshine Biscuits.

One package will give your folks a new idea of how good biscuits can be.

And common biscuits, baked in old-time ways, will never taste good after that.

Sunshine Biscuits

From the Bakery with a Thousand Windows

We've spent 70 years in learning how to make biscuits like these. Yet they were impossible until we built this model bakery.

Now we have the world's finest bakery. The white tile ovens are on the top floor. Air and sunshine are everywhere.

You'll be astounded at these new creations of the baker's art. They are immensely good.

Sodaettes, 5c

These are the "Sunshine" soda crackers. Try them today—else our Boston Grahams, or our Oyster Crackers, 5c.

This is the first real Chinese story of love and adventure ever put into a moving picture, and so elaborate its production, and so novel is its theme, that this film is destined to be one of the big hits of the season.

The new bill on Thursday will include three entirely new films of moving pictures, and for vaudeville there will be Miss Bagshaw in illustrated songs, the Fritz dog show, the Roman trio and the Galtain sisters. The most interesting feature of the new policy of the Academy of Music is the fact that the best seat is only 10 cents and one may see an entire performance by dropping in at any time between 1 and 10 in the afternoon and 7 and 10 in the evening.

THEATRE VOYONS

"The Actor's Child," one of the pictures on the new bill at the Theatre Voyons today bids fair to take first prize for American pictures of the month. "Bear Hunting in Canada" is a complete picture of a hunting trip in the northwest after black bear. The trail of a hunter, his killing and skinning are all shown and the picture is an excellent one of an almost unknown sport.

"The Clown Doctor," is a falling, it is a novelty and very catchy. "I Love You Like the Rose, Love the Dew," is a fine piece of music.

STAR THEATRE

Patrons of the Star theatre have been treated to excellent entertainment since taking pictures were introduced at the house, and this week the subject, "Life is a Game of Cards," is talked and depicted. Other films are "The Paris Fire Brigade," "Tricked by the Constable," and "The Birth of a Nation." The latter is a masterpiece of acting and is being sung by Harry O'Neill, "Baby" Curry answers many encores.

BUSINESS BOOM DEMANDED $20,000

New England Cotton Mills Face Season of Prosperity

Strange Woman Threatened to Kill Mrs. Phipps

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—So hopeful of prosperity for the cotton mills of New England is Eugene N. Foss that he is going ahead with his plans for a mammoth cotton mill in East Boston.

"The plans are now being drawn," said Mr. Foss yesterday.

"The plant contemplated is to have 250,000 spindles and employ 5000 people. We shall start, however, with 50,000 spindles and 1000 employees.

"The outlook for the cotton business is unusually good," said Mr. Foss, "for, owing to the big strike at Manchester, Eng., the surplus of goods has been pretty well cleaned out."

"General business sentiment is altogether better than before election," continued Mr. Foss, "though I do not look for an extraordinary business boom for a year yet; tariff revision is still ahead of us."

C. P. Baker, treasurer of the Lawrence Manufacturing company, also expressed the opinion that the cotton mills of New England were entering upon a prosperous period.

"Our business had discounted the election to a certain extent," said Mr. Baker. "Orders began to come in before election, and since election our business has been very encouraging."

"The purchasing power of people is still at a low ebb, owing to the period of depression, but must improve as they gain employment and again have money to spend."

Mr. Baker felt that the outlook had improved decidedly and that the cotton mills of New England would in due time be employed to their full capacity.

W. M. Wood, president of the American Woolen company, expressed himself yesterday as highly pleased with the outlook and at the volume of orders which had come in since election.

"Tariff revision is ahead of us, of course," he said, "but we feel that it is in the hands of sensible men. All we ask is that they will not talk too long, but give us a chance to play ball."

Machinery manufacturers who told The Sun previous to election that heavy orders for machinery were contingent upon the election of Mr. Taft said yesterday that they had not been disappointed. The orders had been placed and they foresaw a busy period in their line of industry.

Both the Alis-Chalmers company and the Walworth Manufacturing company said that times had improved considerably.

Men connected with the freight departments of railroads entering Boston said yesterday that freight traffic had increased already.

The New Haven road, which was running its repair shops on short time, has started upon full time, giving employment to 2000 men.

Those who have made a canvass of the retail business of Boston said yesterday that the merchants were already feeling the improvement that is said to be general.

LOSS IS $10,000

Bad Blaze in Brockton Last Night

BROCKTON, Nov. 10.—One store was completely burned out and four others were more or less damaged as the result of a fire of mysterious origin which broke out in the Opera House block on Main street, near East Elm street, last night.

The loss is placed at $10,000. The fire is suspected of being the work of an incendiary, it threatened to wipe out the entire block, and for a few moments many thought much of Brockton's retail section to be in danger.

The blaze, which started in a passageway in rear of the block, was discovered by a passer-by shortly after 10 o'clock.

An alarm from box 21, the danger box of the city, brought the apparatus to the scene.

By the time of the arrival of the later the flames had spread to the dealer.

Despite the efforts of the firemen the flames continued to gain headway, until the entire stock of the McVeeny store was consumed, together with the stores of Loring & Howard, dealers in carpets, rugs and curtains; Madame L. First, millinery; Standard Shoe company and Iris Brothers, restaurant keepers.

MEMBERS' NIGHT AT Y. M. C. A.
John B. Ratto, in character studies from life, will be at the Y. M. C. A. this Saturday evening as a members' entertainment. Tickets are free to members, contributors and the women's auxiliary, each being given two. Mr. Ratto was booked to appear on that evening at Dartmouth college by the students, but the professors made Saturday faculty night, and the students were obliged to cancel the engagement. Because of this, the association was able to present him to its members in a social evening.

Mr. Ratto was in the Star course of the Cambridge Y. M. C. A. last year, and ranks high in the list of entertainers. His use of the art of the make-up in his impersonations makes his work doubly interesting.

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 10.—Mrs. Genevieve Chandler Phipps, divorced wife of Lawrence Phipps, a Pittsburgh millionaire, yesterday narrowly escaped death by dynamite at the hands of a woman, unidentified by the police, who for two days had haunted the Phipps home, and had at last got hold of Mrs. Phipps and demanded $20,000 under penalty of death, immediate and horrible.

When foiled in her attempt, the woman cast dynamite at detectives from Mrs. Phipps' automobile, in which she had forced her intended victim to drive her to a bank to procure the money. An explosion was prevented because the dynamite struck a cushion of the automobile. The woman was quickly placed under control and efforts are being made to find some clue to her identity. She persistently refused to give her name, but insists that she is under the influence of a hypnotist, and that this explains her attempt to blackmail Mrs. Phipps.

While Mrs. Phipps was riding in her automobile in the park yesterday, the woman leaped from behind a tree and into the machine as it was going by. She quickly engaged Mrs. Phipps in conversation. Suddenly the woman produced several sticks of capped dynamite and demanded that Mrs. Phipps give her $20,000 within an hour, or she would destroy her. She directed that the automobile be driven to the Walcott school and that Mrs. Phipps' daughter be taken along, evidently to have a hostage. Mrs. Phipps agreed to go to her bank and get the money, and there her party headed, after stopping at the school to get the little daughter of Mrs. Phipps.

Arriving at the bank, all but the strange woman left the machine. The police are at a loss to know why the woman failed to accompany Mrs. Phipps into the bank, for once inside the building Mrs. Phipps hurriedly related her experience to a bank officer, and police headquarters was communicated with. Two detectives hastened to the bank, and in the meantime the strange woman in conversation in the enclosed automobile.

The two city detectives arrived before the woman became suspicious and quietly opened the door of the tonneau opposite the sidewalk. The woman, seeming to realize that she was entrapped, dashed the dynamite sticks at the two officers. The explosive struck against the machine and fell to the floor without exploding. The melodrama, although enacted with rapidity in the heart of Denver, was staged so quietly that no one except the actors was acquainted with the acts until after the alleged blackmailer had been locked up and the police began an endeavor to identify the prisoner.

CUMMINGS SPOKE

To Two Large Audiences in Centralville

It was Cummings' night in Centralville last evening, for Lawrence Cummings addressed two large and enthusiastic rallies in the country across the river and appeared to be in the hands of his friends. The first rally was held in Odd Fellows hall, Bridge street, with a large attendance. Ex-Councilman Thomas F. Garvey, one of Centralville's best known men, in introducing Mr. Cummings, spoke as follows:

"There are special reasons why the voters of Centralville should take an active part in the selection of the mayor of our city. We constitute a goodly portion of Lowell. We pay taxes on $5,000,000 worth of real estate and $428,600 personal property. Our contribution to the city treasury is more than $116,000 yearly and for these reasons our interests in the selection of a clean, capable man, as mayor should be indeed active."

"In Lawrence Cummings we find a man whose record as a public official has always been above board. He has shown ability, displayed fearlessness, and above all has been honest in all of his acts. In the selection of Mr. Cummings for mayor the taxpayers of Centralville should feel assured that an honest effort would be made at city hall to give an administration that would be creditable as well as capable."

"Mr. Cummings, in his capacity as a newspaperman, has a thorough acquaintance with all the departments of the city. He knows their weaknesses and knows the privilege of smoking on cars and in places of business where ladies are obliged to suffer the unpleasant odor of tobacco in its varied forms. If people must smoke, it should be out in the open air, where the fumes can be quickly carried away, and not where ladies are obliged to stay and inhale the odor, however sickening it may be, after the thorough smoker has gone out to breathe the clear, fresh air."

Do the smokers ever consider that it is not a very pleasant thing to inhale the smoke that you know has come out of a man's mouth mingled with his foul breath? Yet hundreds of men along the sidewalks are selfish enough to smoke cigars or pipes while these around them are obliged to inhale the smoke escaping from their mouths. Thanking you for your space,

Respectfully yours,
Sun Reader.

Severin Hebert being in charge of that end of the program.

In Ward Two

Mr. Cummings visited ward two earlier in the evening, and made two speeches to large audiences. After leaving Centralville he returned to his headquarters in Middlesex street, where another large gathering awaited him.

JOHN H. TREAT

A PROMINENT LAWRENCE MAN DIED SUNDAY

LAWRENCE, Nov. 10.—The funeral of John Harvey Treat, formerly of Lawrence, who died Sunday at Pittsfield, N. H., will be held from Christ church, Andover, Wednesday. He died of diabetes.

Mr. Treat was the son of the late James A. Treat, founder of the Treat Hardware Co. and owner of the Brechin block, which he built at Essex street and Broadway.

John Harvey Treat was born in Pittsfield, N. H., July 23, 1839. He graduated from Phillips Andover academy in 1858 and from Harvard in 1862, receiving the degree of A. M. After his graduation he went into the mill supply business with his father, and retired in 1892.

Mr. Treat was the author of "Notes on the Rubrics, Etc.," 1882; "The Catholic Faith," 1886; "Truro Baptisms," 1886; "Genealogy of the Treat Family," 1893; "Ancestry of Col. John Harvey," 1907; "The Catacombs of Rome, with a History of the Tombs of the Apostles, Peter and Paul, with Notes and Illustrations," and of many pamphlets.

Editor Sun:

The strict instructions given the employees of the B. & N. R. Co. within a few days are worthy of imitation. We have often wondered why men were allowed the privilege of smoking on cars and in places of business where ladies are obliged to suffer the unpleasant odor of tobacco in its varied forms. If people must smoke, it should be out in the open air, where the fumes can be quickly carried away, and not where ladies are obliged to stay and inhale the odor, however sickening it may be, after the thorough smoker has gone out to breathe the clear, fresh air."

Do the smokers ever consider that it is not a very pleasant thing to inhale the smoke that you know has come out of a man's mouth mingled with his foul breath? Yet hundreds of men along the sidewalks are selfish enough to smoke cigars or pipes while these around them are obliged to inhale the smoke escaping from their mouths. Thanking you for your space,

Respectfully yours,
Sun Reader.

Charms and Locketts

CHARMS AND LOCKETS

We are fully prepared to meet all wants in this direction. Our stock of charms and locketts is a charming variety of late and artistic designs that cannot fail to meet with your approval. We show some very elegant goods in this line and are bound to please you with our very fair prices, which in all instances represent the actual worth of the article. If you desire the latest ideas and full worth for your money, come and see us and you will make no mistake at

Frank Ricard
636-638 Merrimack St.

The Radical Markdown Sale

CLOSED---TODAY and WEDNESDAY

To Mark-Down Stock For the

BIG SALE

OF

Suits, Overcoats, Pants, Shirts, Underwear, Shoes

Gloves, Hosiery, Hats, Caps

BARGAINS FOR EVERYBODY.

BE ON HAND

SALE OPENS THURSDAY, 9 O'CLOCK

802000

ROY & O'HEIR

88 Prescott Street

Facing Market Street

JAMES B. CASEY

Holds Big Rally in Ward Four

Ex-Mayor James B. Casey opened his campaign with a rally at the Lyon street school house last evening with a large and enthusiastic audience. The school basement was filled and many stood in the school yard.

Mr. Casey introduced himself and delivered a lengthy speech that was frequently interrupted by applause. "Two years ago I was defeated after a hard-fought campaign, by a candidate whose high sounding phrases and platitudes relative to the kind of government he would give, led the citizens to honestly believe that under his able and wise guidance of public affairs a Utopian government would at last be realized. How rude the awakening has been, you well know."

"I claim now that my two years in the mayor's chair merited a different verdict than was then rendered at the polls, and a different verdict would have been rendered had not the public mind been misled by certain men, because they could not control, sought to destroy."

"Have the taxpayers of Lowell any reason to fear my return to office? Did I not give a good administration of public affairs from their standpoint? Can any of my critics point out where I failed to safeguard the city's interests, because they have never been accused of it? But what kind of promises were they? A man would come to that office asking that I do something for him. He was not told that I was not. He was always admitted, and that without becoming entangled in red tape before he entered the 'sanctity of the office.' He presented his request and let me add, gentlemen, there was many a tough proposition presented to me. If I did not care to interest myself in a man's behalf, I could have readily said, 'No, it can't be done,' or 'I don't care to do it,' but there was a chance, however difficult, that the favor asked for could be done, and I was willing to give the man the benefit of the doubt. My ability to do the favor asked was dependent upon the future, say a day, a week or two weeks. Upon the assurance that I would do what was possible to do, I went out to do the favor. In many instances I had to go to the body of the man who had the decision in the matter. I put in just as much time and effort to get the favor as I did to get the favor. If I succeeded, well and good. If I did not succeed, well and good. I did not succeed, and was obliged to say I could not do it. In many instances the next I heard of the matter was that the man who had asked for the favor had been promoted to a higher position, and I did not hear of him again."

"I am accused of having made all kinds of promises. There really were not enough minutes in the day to make all the promises I have been accused of. But what kind of promises were they? A man would come to that office asking that I do something for him. He was not told that I was not. He was always admitted, and that without becoming entangled in red tape before he entered the 'sanctity of the office.' He presented his request and let me add, gentlemen, there was many a tough proposition presented to me. If I did not care to interest myself in a man's behalf, I could have readily said, 'No, it can't be done,' or 'I don't care to do it,' but there was a chance, however difficult, that the favor asked for could be done, and I was willing to give the man the benefit of the doubt. My ability to do the favor asked was dependent upon the future, say a day, a week or two weeks. Upon the assurance that I would do what was possible to do, I went out to do the favor. In many instances I had to go to the body of the man who had the decision in the matter. I put in just as much time and effort to get the favor as I did to get the favor. If I succeeded, well and good. If I did not succeed, well and good. I did not succeed, and was obliged to say I could not do it. In many instances the next I heard of the matter was that the man who had asked for the favor had been promoted to a higher position, and I did not hear of him again."

"I am accused of making all kinds of money while in office. The discrepancy with which this accusation has been spread shows the extent to which some men will go in order to destroy another in public estimation. What basis is there for such statements? Point out a public act of mine that shows the first evidence of corrupt intentions. On the contrary does not a little reflection prove that my course would have been entirely opposite to what it was if I were improperly influenced? Would I have fought the Welsbach Co. for a period of four months in the end saving the city $34,500 on a contract? Would I have permitted the citizens of Lowell to decide the question of a duplicate telephone system, by sending out postal cards for an expression of opinion? Were not my policy board appointments discredited by the public before they were made? My appointments were too surmise to the public, but on the contrary, generally accepted and expected, and surely not dictated, and in direct contrast to the secretive, surprising, and unexpected appointments of their successors.

"Perhaps there was too much activity during my administration. If I had adopted the policy of 'let well enough alone,' it would have pleased some people better. Yet I still believe that you would prefer a man in the office of mayor who will do things, to one who is content to let things drift along, and who will not interfere in matters he should, because of the fear that he may make enemies.

"The man who stands up in his shoes and says 'No' when 'No' should be said is bound to displease some. It is true that a mayor can wink at or close his eyes to many things that go on about him, or he can sit up and take notice. I was once told by a head of a department that I was meddling and impertinent in questioning a certain policy that was planned. The supreme court, however, sustained my impertinence."

"I feel confident I am going to win this fight, because I have a majority of right thinking men with me, and I don't think you are going to give a certain element in the party the intense satisfaction and delight that it would give them to accomplish my defeat. I believe you are going to stand by me, rather than by them. Two years ago they could not defeat me at the primaries, but succeeded at the polls election day. We won the fight fairly. Suppose you give them 'Casey' again as the best repudiation of their conduct at that time."

"Municipal government is subject to many perplexing difficulties. There is a diversity of views as to how our public affairs should be conducted. Aside from the hard and fast rules of conduct that take out recognition and respect from men chosen to public office, there is a wide difference of opinion as to how things should be done. What pleases one man, displeases another. One citizen believes in a liberal interpretation of laws, while another would read into them a narrower interpretation than was ever intended."

"There are hundreds of men walking the streets of Lowell today out of employment. Public spirit lies dormant. It is within the province of a mayor, by his personal diligence and alertness to arouse and promote a public spirit in the community, to increase industrial activity by planning and inaugurating public work, and the acquisition of new industries. The sign suspended from the mayor's door for the past two years has read 'nothing doing.' Suppose you take it down, and replace it with a new sign, the inscription reading 'something doing.' I will endeavor to prove the correctness of the latter inscription if elected mayor."

"You want good and progressive government next year. I will give it to you. I am not afraid to make enemies in doing so."

Women's Health

may be protected and improved by keeping the blood in good condition, the stomach well, the liver active and the bowels regular by the timely use of

BEECHAM'S PILLS

Sold Everywhere. In boxes 10c. and 25c.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

J. W. DALY SPOKE

He Addressed Several Meetings Last Night

John W. Daly, one of the candidates for the democratic nomination for mayor, addressed a large meeting of his followers in Pawtucketville last night and his remarks called forth great enthusiasm. The ex-alderman reviewed his career in city hall and said that as a member of the common council and the board of aldermen he had always endeavored to guard closely the city's interest. He cited some of the public measures in which he took a leading part and invited criticism of any public act of his. He told his hearers that he is devoting the entire time to the campaign, having resigned as manager of a grocery concern with which he was connected since a boy, in order that he might be able to see as many of the voters as possible and tell them why he aspired to the mayor's chair. He announced that tomorrow he will open headquarters in the Gidden building. Daly also spoke at a meeting of the Daily club of ward eight at the headquarters in upper Gorkham street and later was at the C. M. A. C. He was well received in both places.

COL. CARMICHAEL

Held Rally at Headquarters Last Night

The friends of Col. Carmichael assembled at his headquarters on Central street in large numbers last night and appointed ward committees to direct his canvass for the democratic nomination for the mayoralty. The colonel made a brief speech, thanking his friends for the interest they had shown, and he hoped they would see their efforts crowned by success at the caucus next Tuesday night. He felt the nomination should be given to him once more on account of the good run he had made last year.

BUSY BROWN

Candidate Made Four Speeches Yesterday

Despite his clouded voice George H. Brown made four speeches yesterday and threw some hot shots into his opponents. Starting out at the Harmony hall, he referred to all of the republican candidates with a special reference to Candidate Murphy and the fact that he was familiar with the primary of DeWitt as he had been called there after he had been turned out of the mayor's office. Mr. Brown invaded Centralville and entered a large gathering at the corner of Bridge and First streets. Then he went down Lakeview avenue where in front of the drug store of Hon. John H. Sparks he delivered another speech. From Lakeview avenue he went into Little Canada and made another speech. Today he spoke at the Massachusetts gate at noon and at 8 p. m. will address the public at the corner of Willis and Bridge streets. At 10 p. m. he will speak at the corner of Merrimack road and Riverdale street. His home precinct where he expects a large gathering of neighbors.

Mr. Derby Called Away

Luticus A. Derby was suddenly called to New Hampshire yesterday by the illness of his wife and his political affairs are in the hands of ex-alderman George H. Taylor.

Makes the Mercury Climb

Alaska outside—Florida inside. When the blizzard comes it will be impossible to comfortably heat the cold rooms. Then, and during the months of "between seasons" you'll find a

PERFECTION Oil Heater

(Equipped with Smokeless Device)

just what you need to make the mercury climb. It's light enough to carry from room to room and gives direct glowing heat from every drop of fuel. Turn the wick high or low, there's no bother—no smoke—no smell—smokeless devices prevent. Brass oil font holds 4 quarts burning 9 hours. Superbly finished in japan and nickel. Every heater warranted.

The Rayo Lamp

makes a good companion for a long evening—brilliant, steady light—reading, sewing or fancy work doesn't tire the eyes. Made of brass, nickel plated, with latest improved central draft burner. Every lamp warranted. Write our nearest agency for descriptive circular if your dealer doesn't carry the Perfection Oil Heater or Rayo Lamp.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (Incorporated)

THE LOWELL SUN

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, PROPRIETOR.
Member of the Associated Press.

Three Dollars per Year. Twenty-five Cents per Month

The Sun receives the full day service of THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, the greatest news-gathering organization in the world. The entire service is received over a leased wire, by our own operator, in our own office in The Sun Building.

SWORN CIRCULATION OF THE SUN

The sworn daily net average circulation of The Lowell Sun, for the year 1907 was

15,453

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reldy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1908.
JAMES E. O'DONNELL, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest net average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

TARIFF REVISION THE ONLY BARRIER.

The only thing that is now likely to delay prosperity in any line of industry is the revision of the tariff. That will not come until after March 4 of next year. In the meantime every industry can build up all the business it may without fear of tariff disturbance.

The prospect of a change in the tariff, however, will prevent some companies from taking many orders for any great distance ahead.

It is expected, however, that while tariff revision may slightly unsettle some industries for a time, it will effect an improvement that will aid legitimate industry and protect the people against the operation of oppressive trusts.

STRAIGHT TIP TO VOTERS.

When a man has been convicted in police court for various offences, he must have a queer idea of the fitness of things when he sets himself up as a candidate for alderman. Of course under the law nobody can prevent him from being a candidate; but when he does not hesitate to disgrace the party to which he belongs the voters should take care not to endorse his conduct or his candidacy by their votes.

Does this man think that a police court conviction is a commendation to the voters or a prerequisite to nomination for office?

The man who would throw away his vote for such a candidate is as bad as the candidate himself, and both are dishonoring a citizenship of which any man might feel proud.

BOSTON EXTRAVAGANCE EXPOSED.

That is a most astounding condition of rottenness exposed by the finance commission of Boston wherein that body shows that from one half to three-fourths of the citizens escape paying poll taxes and that the expense of collecting those paid is greater than the amount collected. When from $8.30 to $14 a day is paid copying clerks for work that can be done very much better and quicker by typewriters, the force of the commission's report becomes apparent. It is estimated that the changes recommended will net a saving of over $61,000. If half what the commission says in relation to the assessors' department be true, it is certainly no wonder that the tax rate of Boston is high, and no wonder that the debt is yearly increasing at a rapid rate.

DUTY OF VOTERS AT THE PRIMARIES.

The political parties have their ballots made up for the primaries and each has a fairly good list to select from, although there are on both tickets men wholly unsuited for the offices they seek. In the matter of selection it is all resolved finally to a matter of individual responsibility.

The average citizen must do his duty in the primaries if we are to have any improvement in our city government. If any party fails to make nominations that will command general support it need not feel disappointed at seeing the voters select a ticket made up of the best in all the tickets presented on election day.

What is wanted in candidates is: incorruptibility, business capacity, freedom from entangling business relations and courage to contend with the grafters who seem to think they can ply their business regardless of who is in the mayor's chair or in the board of aldermen.

It is the duty of every citizen in passing upon his party ticket to consider each and every candidate with reference to these qualities and select the men who have them in the highest degree.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S LETTER.

Apropos of the attack upon the religion of President-elect Taft, the letter of President Roosevelt touching the religion of presidential candidates in general is broad in its spirit as the American principle of freedom underlying the constitution of this republic. Although what the president says on this matter is a truism when considered in connection with the constitutional rights of American citizens, yet it is astonishing to find how many people there are, even in this city, who think that men of certain religious beliefs are debarred from being candidates for the presidency.

The letter of President Roosevelt will, we hope, clear up this matter in the public mind and thus explode a false idea that prejudiced some ignorant people against our government and constitution.

The president in reply to his correspondent in the course of a long letter has this paragraph:

"You ask that Mr. Taft shall let the world know what his religious belief is. This is purely his own private concern, and it is a matter between him and his Maker, a matter for his own conscience, and to require it to be made public under penalty of political discrimination is to violate the first principles of our government, which guarantee complete religious liberty, and the right to each man to act in religious affairs as his own conscience dictates."

This is the proper stand to take in reference to the religion of candidates. It is the spirit of freedom embodied in our constitution, and to adopt a different policy would not only set up sectional differences and conflicts but would cause men of no religion to use the mantle of religion to deceive the public, to catch votes and win preferment just as some crooks and hypocrites are wont to proclaim their honesty as a commendation to public favor.

SEEN AND HEARD

If your name is Carr and you go looking for a doctor in the middle of the night here is what is liable to happen: A fellow by that name, not many years ago, was taken violently sick during the hour that the graveyards were yawning, and he made haste to a doctor's house. He rapped at the door and the doctor from a window two stories above said, "Who there?" "Mr. Carr," said the sick man at the door. "Well if you missed a car, wait for the next, you dern fool. I ought to have you arrested for waking me up at this hour of the night, you drunken sot," said the enraged doctor.

From a national standpoint says the Hamilton Herald of Hamilton, Canada, Canadian people have more cause for thanksgiving now than they had a year ago. Then a period of financial and industrial depression had developed, and the outlook was gloomy; now there are signs that the depression is lifting and the outlook is cheerful. Then, the harvest which had been gathered was disappointingly small owing to unusually unfavorable weather conditions in the west. This year's wheat harvest is a great one and above the average in quality. As a people we have our troubles, industrial, commercial, social and political; but it is probably not too much to say, and it is well to remember, that taking one thing with another, no people on earth have greater cause for thanksgiving than have the people of Canada. It is fitting that a sincere spirit of gratitude should be felt and manifested on the day set apart for national thanksgiving.

"JIM" THOMPSON'S REFLECTIONS
I hardly noticed how de summer time done pass away
An' de autumn come a-rappin' at de do'
I've been down to ole Virgin' an' de blossoms was as gay
An' de sunshine was as shinin' as befo'
I kind o' got to feelin' all contented an' sure
Like there wasn't any trouble loasin' round
A-figgerin' dat my comfort at de lake-side was dead sure
When a leaf come slowly driftin' to de ground
It just got tired o' clingin' to de trees upon a hill
It warn't no use waitin' for a freeze, An' soon a comrade leaf de limb above an' floated near
An' still the sun kep' smilin' th'oo de trees
I hear de boss' auto honk; but I sholy got de blues
An' de wind took on a solemn winter sound
Twere like a telegraf dat carried mighty mournful news
Dat yellin' leaf dat fluttered to de ground

The shock to Orville W. Peabody when he learned that the poundkeeper's appropriation had been exhausted was greater than the shock he received when the highwayman struck him over the head with an overgrown coupling pin several years ago.

The Southern girl of the ante-bellum period—the rose of the old regime—was a heart's delight. She was never a flirt. There is a difference between a hummingbird, making a dainty pretence of kissing a jacinthe—and a cat playing with a mouse. Coquetry with the southern girl of that by-gone day was the unconscious challenge of a feminine woman accustomed to homage. It never verged upon coarseness or cruelty—never lost her the man's esteem, which remained to her after the hot whirl of the senses had subsided and the cool surprise of her look. No, the southern girl was no flirt. She was sentimental. It was her sweetest charm—the drop of dew in the heart of the rose, keeping it fresh forever. Her sentiment was not sickly. The girl who cherished a dead flower her lover had given her, would bind up his wounds on a bloody

BLAIR'S PILLS
Sole, Sure, Effective. 50c. & $1.
DRUGGISTS, or 41 Henry St., Boston, U.S.A.

Steamship Tickets
To and from Great Britain, Ireland and all parts of Europe, on the Cunard, White Star and all the leading lines.
AT MURPHY'S AGENCY,
18 Appleton St., opp. Postoffice.
Money orders and drafts sold, payable in all parts of Europe, for any amount.

$ SAVED IS $ MADE
Your can experience same at
Louis Price's JEWELRY STORE
14 PRESCOTT STREET
I guarantee a saving on all work and purchases.

Fresh Clams Every Day
At the Lowell Inn. Fresh fish direct from the Boston wharves. Lobsters fresh from the traps. Meats fresh and wholesome. Call and see us.
LOWELL INN, busiest place in Central street.

JOHN J. O'CONNELL
FUNERAL DIRECTOR,
Telephone Connection
1010 Central St. Davis Sq.

ST. THOMAS' SALVE
—FOR—
Piles, Old Sores and Skin Diseases.
—FOR SALE—
At All Up-to-Date Drug Stores
THIRTY-FIVE CENTS.

Wall Paper
—AT—
97 APPLETON ST.

ELECTRIC AND COMBINATION FIXTURES
At Manufacturer's Prices
—AT—
DERBY & MORSE'S
64 Middle Street, Lowell, Mass.

JAMES E. O'DONNELL
Attorney-at-Law
Hildreth Building Lowell, Mass.

battlefield or ride through storm of bullets to warn him of danger—or cook his dinner and iron his shirt when he was her husband and had lost his patrimony and beaten his sword into a plowshare. They were capable of dying with broken hearts—those girls—but dying with unweakened colors.
—Mary E. Bryan in Uncle Remus—The Home Magazine for November.

CHINESE EMPEROR

Is in a Very Weakened Condition

PEKIN, Nov. 10.—The emperor of China, who has been suffering for nearly two weeks from an intestinal disorder, is worse today. He refuses foreign medical aid or to take foreign medicine. He is unusually weak, but in spite of this he received the members of the grand council yesterday. He was propped up on pillows during the interview. The members of the grand council are non-committal in the matter of the emperor's condition. Yuan Shakkai, however, is an exception; he is pessimistic.
Public business has been suspended on account of the indisposition of the dowager empress.

AUTUMN MEETING

OF WOMAN'S BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETIES

The autumnal meeting of the Woman's Baptist Foreign Missionary Society, Merrimack River association, will be held in the Second Baptist church, Lawrence, Thursday, Nov. 12. The program is as follows:

10.30 a. m.—Prayer and praise service, Mrs. E. M. Lake.
10.45 a. m.—Address of welcome, Mrs. J. A. Brackett.
11.45 a. m.—Messages from our circles. Open discussion.
12.15 p. m.—"Our Apportionment—What Shall We Do About It?"
12.30 p. m.—"Over Against the Treasury," Miss Alice E. Steadman.
1.15 p. m.—New literature, Mrs. F. P. Haggard.

INTERMISSION

2 p. m.—Scripture lesson and prayer, Mrs. Asa Reed Dilts.
2.15 p. m.—Address, "Our Telugu Sisters," Miss Helen Newcomb.
3.30 p. m.—Solo, Miss Alice Leith. Collection.
8 p. m.—Address, "The Yandis," Mrs. W. B. Boggs, South India.
8.30 p. m.—Solo, Miss Thelma Leith.
9 p. m.—Closing prayer.

IN NASHUA COURT

Mr. and Mrs. "Joekie" McLaughlin appeared in the police court at Nashua yesterday, and through Fred J. Gaffney, their counsel, pleaded not guilty to the charge of being vagabonds. They got six months each which was suspended, providing they quit the town. After McLaughlin got out of the house of correction, last June, he came to Lowell and effected a matrimonial alliance with the woman who was the respondent with him yesterday. The woman went to Nashua and have remained there since.

MONEY FOR WIRES

For Police Dept. Refused by Committee

ANOTHER MEETING TO BE HELD THIS EVENING.

At Which Sanitary Conditions of Lincoln School Will Be Discussed—The School At Present Demands Prompt Attention

The committee on appropriations at a meeting held at the city hall last night voted to recommend $2500 for sundries and salaries in the police department. The committee, however, balked at an appropriation of $3000 for the laying of wires for the police department. Supt. Moffatt was there and asked for the wire appropriation. Electrician Michael Burns said the estimated cost of laying the wires was about $3000, divided as follows:

Tower's corner to fair grounds, $1204; Tower's corner up to Middle-street, $1502; Cabot street to Pawtucketville, $400.

In addition, Supt. Moffatt figured $2500 is necessary for "piecing out," this amount to cover sundries and salaries.

It was voted to recommend the $2500.

The question then came on voting money for the laying of wires.

"I'm not in favor of voting a red cent for anything that isn't necessary," said Councilman Stevens.

"Nor I," declared Councilman Dexter.

It was agreed that the wires could not be laid in any event until next year, and the committee took no action.

The committee will meet again at 7 o'clock this evening and will then discuss the sanitation of the Lincoln school. The committee will ask Inspector Smith of the lands and buildings department to name the amount necessary for the improvement of the sanitary conditions at that school.

FOR THANKSGIVING

THERE WILL BE PLENTY OF TURKEYS

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 10.—Horace Vose of Westbury is preparing the chief element for President Roosevelt's last Thanksgiving dinner at the White House, a turkey gobble. The one Mr. Vose put in the pen for this year's presidential Thanksgiving made the scales mark 31 pounds, every one of them of avoirdupois weight.

"He is a daisy," said Mr. Vose, "and when he is decorated with the usual trimmings and the proverbial cranberry sauce he will make a feast even a president may well be thankful for."

Turkeys will be plentiful, say the wholesalers. The Rhode Island crop is expected to be large, and western birds are offered in goodly number. Prices, however, are slightly higher than they were a year ago, the present wholesale price being between 23 and 25 cents a pound, as compared with 20 and 23 cents at this time last year.

Putnam & Son Co.,
166 CENTRAL STREET
HIGH SCHOOL CADET UNIFORMS

The uniforms we provide are the only ones sold in Lowell that are of the correct shade of blue—and of standard quality and standard weight.

A comparison of our uniforms with those offered by other houses is all that is necessary to prove this statement.

We are using today the same fine cloth of regulation blue that we have furnished for five years—a cloth that is warranted to be strictly all wool and warranted not to fade. Strictly military in cut, finely tailored. We fit every uniform we sell without expense.

High School Uniforms

FOR PRIVATE
BLOUSES $3.50
TROUSERS $2.50
CAPS with H. S. R. on front 95c

FOR CORPORALS
BLOUSES with chevrons sewed on $4.00
TROUSERS with stripes sewed on $3.00
CAPS with embroidered wreath, and letters and silver cord $1.50

FOR SERGEANTS
BLOUSES for all Sergeants, with correct chevrons sewed on $4.25
TROUSERS with stripes sewed on $3.00
CAPS with embroidered wreath, letters and silver and gilt cord $1.50

Company Letters 5c
Embroidered Letters H. S. R. 15c
Embroidered Wreaths and Letters 45c
Cord (silver or silver and gilt) 25c
Enamel Rank Mark Pins for Commissioned and Non-Commissioned Officers—either blue or white fields 25c
Pennants and Arm Bands—L. H. S. gray letters on red grounds, 45c and 18c

HEATED DEBATE

Is Expected Over A. F. of Labor Resolution

DENVER, Nov. 10.—The American Federation of Labor today opened today's session by listening to the report of the executive council. The appointment of the usual committees was next in order.
The president then announced that the convention was open for business and the reception of resolutions.
According to the constitution, resolutions can be introduced from the floor up to the close of the session on Thursday afternoon. All these resolutions will be sent to the committee on resolutions and this committee will report them to the convention from time to time during the session. A resolution which will come up for consideration is expected to signify the entrance of the federation into politics. This resolution will doubtless be the cause of a prolonged discussion.

VOTE FOR
Edward H. Foye
Democratic Candidate for PURCHASING AGENT
He Can be Elected
Caucuses Tuesday, Nov. 17.
WILLIAM F. RYAN,
34 West Third St.
Advertisement.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF LOWELL:—
OWING TO CIRCUMSTANCES BEYOND MY CONTROL I HAVE BEEN UNABLE TO BEGIN MY CAMPAIGN FOR THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION FOR MAYOR. IN THE MEANTIME OTHER ASPIRANTS HAVE BEEN PLACING THEIR CLAIMS BEFORE THE VOTERS. NONE OF THEM HAVE MENTIONED THE FACT THAT A SECOND NOMINATION AFTER ONE STRONG CAMPAIGN FOR THIS GREAT HONOR IS ONLY CUSTOMARY FAIR PLAY, RATIFIED BY THE PRACTICE OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY LOCALLY FOR MANY YEARS. THERE IS NO NECESSITY OF HERE SETTING FORTH YEARS OF LOYAL PARTY SERVICE IN BEHALF OF COUNTERLESS CANDIDATES AND INSTANCES OF VOLUNTARY WITHDRAWAL FOR THE ASSISTANCE OF OTHERS AND THE LIVING OF THIS PARTY. MY PARTY RECORD IS SECOND TO NONE IN THE CITY, AND THIS IS A MATTER OF COMMON KNOWLEDGE.
RECORDS OF PUBLIC SERVICE ARE PROPERLY DISCUSSED WHEN MEN SEEK HONORS AT THE HANDS OF THEIR FELLOW CITIZENS. I DARE PLACE MY PUBLIC RECORD AGAINST THAT OF ANY MAN IN OUR CITY, WHATEVER HIS POLITICAL PARTY, OR HIS PERSONAL OR SOCIAL CONNECTIONS AND AFFILIATIONS. I AM WILLING TO BE JUDGED BY MY ACTS IN ANY PUBLIC POSITION EVER HELD BY ME, WHETHER AS PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL, ON THE SCHOOL BOARD, AS A DIRECTOR OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY, OR ON THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN.
I BELIEVE THE HONEST AND INTELLIGENT MEN OF THE PARTY WILL CONCEDE THAT MY RECORD IS ONE OF CAREFUL REGARD FOR THE PUBLIC INTEREST AND OF WISE EXPENDITURE OF THE PUBLIC MONIES AND THE GRADUAL BUT CONSTANT ERECTION AND MAINTENANCE OF PERMANENT PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS.
MY CAMPAIGN OF LAST YEAR IS FRESH IN THE MINDS OF THE MEMBERS OF THE PARTY. THAT IT DID NOT RESULT IN VICTORY WAS DUE SOLELY TO THE BELIEF IN THE MINDS OF MANY MEN THAT ANY MAYOR, NOT WHOLLY BAD, SHOULD HAVE A RE-ELECTION.
THERE IS AN OPPORTUNITY THIS YEAR TO RESTORE THE GOVERNMENT OF THE CITY TO THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY WHICH HAS FURNISHED TO THE CITY MANY OF ITS BEST EXECUTIVES. THAT MY CANDIDACY WILL BE SUCCESSFUL AT THE POLLS IS CONFIRMED BY YOU IN THE PRIMARIES I HAVE ABSOLUTELY NO DOUBT.
THAT BY EVERY CONSIDERATION OF JUSTICE, FAIR PLAY AND PARTY HONOR THIS NOMINATION SHOULD BE MINE, I LEAVE TO THE HONEST JUDGMENT OF FAIR AND IMPARTIAL MEN NEVER DOUBTING WHAT THEIR VERDICT SHALL BE.
IF ELECTED BY THE WHOLE PEOPLE OF THE CITY I SHALL HAVE BUT ONE CONTINUAL AND NEVER RESTING DESIRE AND THAT IS THAT THE FUTURE MAY SAY OF ME: "HE WAS AS GOOD A MAYOR AS LOWELL EVER HAD."
RESPECTFULLY,
JAMES B. CARMICHAEL,
22 ROLFE ST.

TRAINS TO AND FROM BOSTON

SOUTHERN DIV.		WESTERN DIV.
To Boston.	From Boston.	To Boston.	From Boston.
Lte. Arr.	Lte. Dep.	Lte. Arr.	Lte. Dep.
6:50	7:20	6:50	7:20
7:10	7:40	7:10	7:40
7:30	8:00	7:30	8:00
7:50	8:20	7:50	8:20
8:10	8:40	8:10	8:40
8:30	9:00	8:30	9:00
8:50	9:20	8:50	9:20
9:10	9:40	9:10	9:40
9:30	10:00	9:30	10:00
9:50	10:20	9:50	10:20
10:10	10:40	10:10	10:40
10:30	11:00	10:30	11:00
10:50	11:20	10:50	11:20
11:10	11:40	11:10	11:40
11:30	12:00	11:30	12:00
11:50	12:20	11:50	12:20
12:10	12:40	12:10	12:40
12:30	13:00	12:30	13:00
12:50	13:20	12:50	13:20
1:10	13:40	1:10	13:40
1:30	14:00	1:30	14:00
1:50	14:20	1:50	14:20
2:10	14:40	2:10	14:40
2:30	15:00	2:30	15:00
2:50	15:20	2:50	15:20
3:10	15:40	3:10	15:40
3:30	16:00	3:30	16:00
3:50	16:20	3:50	16:20
4:10	16:40	4:10	16:40
4:30	17:00	4:30	17:00
4:50	17:20	4:50	17:20
5:10	17:40	5:10	17:40
5:30	18:00	5:30	18:00
5:50	18:20	5:50	18:20
6:10	18:40	6:10	18:40
6:30	19:00	6:30	19:00
6:50	19:20	6:50	19:20
7:10	19:40	7:10	19:40
7:30	20:00	7:30	20:00
7:50	20:20	7:50	20:20
8:10	20:40	8:10	20:40
8:30	21:00	8:30	21:00
8:50	21:20	8:50	21:20
9:10	21:40	9:10	21:40
9:30	22:00	9:30	22:00
9:50	22:20	9:50	22:20
10:10	22:40	10:10	22:40
10:30	23:00	10:30	23:00
10:50	23:20	10:50	23:20
11:10	23:40	11:10	23:40
11:30	24:00	11:30	24:00
11:50	24:20	11:50	24:20
12:10	24:40	12:10	24:40
12:30	25:00	12:30	25:00
12:50	25:20	12:50	25:20
1:10	25:40	1:10	25:40
1:30	26:00	1:30	26:00
1:50	26:20	1:50	26:20
2:10	26:40	2:10	26:40
2:30	27:00	2:30	27:00
2:50	27:20	2:50	27:20
3:10	27:40	3:10	27:40
3:30	28:00	3:30	28:00
3:50	28:20	3:50	28:20
4:10	28:40	4:10	28:40
4:30	29:00	4:30	29:00
4:50	29:20	4:50	29:20
5:10	29:40	5:10	29:40
5:30	30:00	5:30	30:00
5:50	30:20	5:50	30:20
6:10	30:40	6:10	30:40
6:30	31:00	6:30	31:00
6:50	31:20	6:50	31:20
7:10	31:40	7:10	31:40
7:30	32:00	7:30	32:00
7:50	32:20	7:50	32:20
8:10	32:40	8:10	32:40
8:30	33:00	8:30	33:00
8:50	33:20	8:50	33:20
9:10	33:40	9:10	33:40
9:30	34:00	9:30	34:00
9:50	34:20	9:50	34:20
10:10	34:40	10:10	34:40
10:30	35:00	10:30	35:00
10:50	35:20	10:50	35:20
11:10	35:40	11:10	35:40
11:30	36:00	11:30	36:00
11:50	36:20	11:50	36:20
12:10	36:40	12:10	36:40
12:30	37:00	12:30	37:00
12:50	37:20	12:50	37:20
1:10	37:40	1:10	37:40
1:30	38:00	1:30	38:00
1:50	38:20	1:50	38:20
2:10	38:40	2:10	38:40
2:30	39:00	2:30	39:00
2:50	39:20	2:50	39:20
3:10	39:40	3:10	39:40
3:30	40:00	3:30	40:00
3:50	40:20	3:50	40:20
4:10	40:40	4:10	40:40
4:30	41:00	4:30	41:00
4:50	41:20	4:50	41:20
5:10	41:40	5:10	41:40
5:30	42:00	5:30	42:00
5:50	42:20	5:50	42:20
6:10	42:40	6:10	42:40
6:30	43:00	6:30	43:00
6:50	43:20	6:50	43:20
7:10	43:40	7:10	43:40
7:30	44:00	7:30	44:00
7:50	44:20	7:50	44:20
8:10	44:40	8:10	44:40
8:30	45:00	8:30	45:00
8:50	45:20	8:50	45:20
9:10	45:40	9:10	45:40
9:30	46:00	9:30	46:00
9:50	46:20	9:50	46:20
10:10	46:40	10:10	46:40
10:30	47:00	10:30	47:00
10:50	47:20	10:50	47:20
11:10	47:40	11:10	47:40
11:30	48:00	11:30	48:00
11:50	48:20	11:50	48:20
12:10	48:40	12:10	48:40
12:30	49:00	12:30	49:00
12:50	49:20	12:50	49:20
1:10	49:40	1:10	49:40
1:30	50:00	1:30	50:00
1:50	50:20	1:50	50:20
2:10	50:40	2:10	50:40
2:30	51:00	2:30	51:00
2:50	51:20	2:50	51:20
3:10	51:40	3:10	51:40
3:30	52:00	3:30	52:00
3:50	52:20	3:50	52:20
4:10	52:40	4:10	52:40
4:30	53:00	4:30	53:00
4:50	53:20	4:50	53:20
5:10	53:40	5:10	53:40
5:30	54:00	5:30	54:00
5:50	54:20	5:50	54:20
6:10	54:40	6:10	54:40
6:30	55:00	6:30	55:00
6:50	55:20	6:50	55:20
7:10	55:40	7:10	55:40
7:30	56:00	7:30	56:00
7:50	56:20	7:50	56:20
8:10	56:40	8:10	56:40
8:30	57:00	8:30	57:00
8:50	57:20	8:50	57:20
9:10	57:40	9:10	57:40
9:30	58:00	9:30	58:00
9:50	58:20	9:50	58:20
10:10	58:40	10:10	58:40
10:30	59:00	10:30	59:00
10:50	59:20	10:50	59:20
11:10	59:40	11:10	59:40
11:30	60:00	11:30	60:00
11:50	60:20	11:50	60:20
12:10	60:40	12:10	60:40
12:30	61:00	12:30	61:00
12:50	61:20	12:50	61:20
1:10	61:40	1:10	61:40
1:30	62:00	1:30	62:00
1:50	62:20	1:50	62:20
2:10	62:40	2:10	62:40
2:30	63:00	2:30	63:00
2:50	63:20	2:50	63:20
3:10	63:40	3:10	63:40
3:30	64:00	3:30	64:00
3:50	64:20	3:50	64:20
4:10	64:40	4:10	64:40
4:30	65:00	4:30	65:00
4:50	65:20	4:50	65:20
5:10	65:40	5:10	65:40
5:30	66:00	5:30	66:00
5:50	66:20	5:50	66:20
6:10	66:40	6:10	66:40
6:30	67:00	6:30	67:00
6:50	67:20	6:50	67:20
7:10	67:40	7:10	67:40
7:30	68:00	7:30	68:00
7:50	68:20	7:50	68:20
8:10	68:40	8:10	68:40
8:30	69:00	8:30	69:00
8:50	69:20	8:50	69:20
9:10	69:40	9:10	69:40
9:30	70:00	9:30	70:00
9:50	70:20	9:50	70:20
10:10	70:40	10:10	70:40
10:30	71:00	10:30	71:00
10:50	71:20	10:50	71:20
11:10	71:40	11:10	71:40
11:30	72:00	11:30	72:00
11:50	72:20	11:50	72:20
12:10	72:40	12:10	72:40
12:30	73:00	12:30	73:00
12:50	73:20	12:50	73:20
1:10	73:40	1:10	73:40
1:30	74:00	1:30	74:00
1:50	74:20	1:50	74:20
2:10	74:40	2:10	74:40
2:30	75:00	2:30	75:00
2:50	75:20	2:50	75:20
3:10	75:40	3:10	75:40
3:30	76:00	3:30	76:00
3:50	76:20	3:50	76:20
4:10	76:40	4:10	76:40
4:30	77:00	4:30	77:00
4:50	77:20	4:50	77:20
5:10	77:40	5:10	77:40
5:30	78:00	5:30	78:00
5:50	78:20	5:50	78:20
6:10	78:40	6:10	78:40
6:30	79:00	6:30	79:00
6:50	79:20	6:50	79:20
7:10	79:40	7:10	79:40
7:30	80:00	7:30	80:00
7:50	80:20	7:50	80:20
8:10	80:40	8:10	80:40
8:30	81:00	8:30	81:00
8:50	81:20	8:50	81:20
9:10	81:40	9:10	81:40
9:30	82:00	9:30	82:00
9:50	82:20	9:50	82:20
10:10	82:40	10:10	82:40
10:30	83:00	10:30	83:00
10:50	83:20	10:50	83:20
11:10	83:40	11:10	83:40
11:30	84:00	11:30	84:00
11:50	84:20	11:50	84:20
12:10	84:40	12:10	84:40
12:30	85:00	12:30	85:00
12:50	85:20	12:50	85:20
1:10	85:40	1:10	85:40
1:30	86:00	1:30	86:00
1:50	86:20	1:50	86:20
2:10	86:40	2:10	86:40
2:30	87:00	2:30	87:00
2:50	87:20	2:50	87:20
3:10	87:40	3:10	87:40
3:30	88:00	3:30	88:00
3:50	88:20	3:50	88:20
4:10	88:40	4:10	88:40
4:30	89:00	4:30	89:00
4:50	89:20	4:50	89:20
5:10	89:40	5:10	89:40
5:30	90:00	5:30	90:00
5:50	90:20	5:50	90:20
6:10	90:40	6:10	90:40
6:30	91:00	6:30	91:00
6:50	91:20	6:50	91:20
7:10	91:40	7:10	91:40
7:30	92:00	7:30	92:00
7:50	92:20	7:50	92:20
8:10	92:40	8:10	92:40
8:30	93:00	8:30	93:00
8:50	93:20	8:50	93:20
9:10	93:40	9:10	93:40
9:30	94:00	9:30	94:00
9:50	94:20	9:50	94:20
10:10	94:40	10:10	94:40
10:30	95:00	10:30	95:00
10:50	95:20	10:50	95:20
11:10	95:40	11:10	95:40
11:30	96:00	11:30	96:00
11:50	96:20	11:50	96:20
12:10	96:40	12:10	96:40
12:30	97:00	12:30	97:00
12:50	97:20	12:50	97:20
1:10	97:40	1:10

6 O'CLOCK PETITION DENIED

Government Wanted Rehearing of Standard Oil Case

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—The government's petition for a rehearing of the case in which the United States circuit court of appeals reversed the trial court in finding the Standard Oil Co. of Indiana $29,000,000 for alleged rebating, was denied in the court of appeals today. It is authoritatively stated that the government will now attempt to bring the whole matter before the supreme court on a writ of certiorari.

The government in its petition for a rehearing intimated that if the opinion of the judges of the superior court was allowed to stand it would nullify nearly every shred of rate reformatory legislation accomplished by the Roosevelt administration. In summing up its position counsel for the government stated that the opinion of the court of appeals as it stood erroneously stated material portions of the records, did injustice to the trial justice, Landis, left doubtful in a new trial the rule of law to be applied both as to knowledge on the part of the shipper that he was accepting an illegally low rate; did not make it clear what was to constitute one offense—a trainload, a car lot, or a whole series of shipments for which but one settlement of freight charges had been made and that the language of the appellate judges appeared to be in conflict with the language of the supreme court and with the language used by the presiding judge, Gresscup, in a previous similar case.

The petition closed with a statement that if the opinion of the court of appeals were permitted to stand unmodified it would "tend to encourage disobedience to law, to impede the enforcement of salutary statutes and largely to defeat their purpose."

In overruling the petition the courts but will not misuse those terms to spread misinformation respecting a judgment that in the nature of the case is bound to attract wide public attention, a remark the government's counsel made when he said that all that had to be done to obviate the objection made is to insert a clause so that the portion of the opinion objected to will read: "A view of the law that is embodied in the charge and carried out in the rulings excluding as the result on that point the preferred testimony of one Edward Bogus, the capitalized portion being the only words inserted."

Immediately upon the overruling of the petition District Attorney Sims applied for a stay of mandate which was granted thus leaving the case still before the court of appeals pending the government's attempt to have the case taken to the supreme court of the United States on a writ of certiorari.

CROP PRODUCTION OF U. S.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The department of agriculture today issued a preliminary estimate of the production of the principal crops of the United States showing that corn, wheat, oats, and eight other crops representing approximately seventy per cent. of the value of all farm crops this year aggregated about three per cent. greater than a year ago and 2.1 per cent. greater than the average for the past five years.

MARKET RALLIED

Sharp Gains in Southern Pacific and Union Pacific

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Enormous buying of Southern Pacific and Union Pacific with sharp gains for both excited the stock market today and pulled the general range of prices up two points or more from a depression into which it had been forced by heavy sales to take

EXCHANGE SEAT COST $75,000

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—A seat on the stock exchange today sold for $75,000. A week ago at the last previous sale a seat brought $70,000.

EDWARD O'NEIL WOMAN IS KNOWN

Wants to Locate Relatives Here Who Made Attack on Mrs. Phipps

DENVER, Nov. 10.—The woman who attempted to kill herself and Miss Helen Phipps and two policemen after the failure of her attempt to extort $20,000 from Mrs. Phipps, was identified today as Mrs. Allen Read, wife of a druggist of this city. Mrs. Read returned recently from Springfield, Mass., where she had gone to attend the funeral of her father, whose name has not yet been learned. She is believed to be insane.

PLEAD NOT GUILTY

Men Are Charged With Smuggling Chinese

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—"Not guilty" was the plea entered by Capt. Henry Daly and Philip Springer, both of Boston, when brought before the federal court today charged with conspiracy against the United States government to bring Chinese into the country in violation of the immigration laws. Each defendant was held in $5000 for a hearing next Tuesday. Although the government authorities have been unable to learn that Daly and Springer actually did smuggle Chinese into the country, they allege that they had made all preparations to do so. According to the authorities, Springer financed the expedition with the assistance of other persons, while Capt. Daly was in actual command of the operations. The schooner Freddie Alton of Bath was chartered by Daly on Aug. 31, and the captain was granted a license by the custom house to make a fishing trip to Labrador and the articles signed by the crew indicated that they were to go fishing. Provisioned for ten weeks the schooner left Chelsea on Sept. 7, but according to the prosecutors for the government instead of going to Labrador the vessel went to Newport News and then to Vera Cruz, Mexico. At Vera Cruz the schooner was anchored outside the harbor for fourteen days, Capt. Daly being on shore for most of the time. At Vera Cruz Daly is alleged to have met Springer, but so far as the government can learn no Chinese were taken on board, and the schooner finally sailed for Pensacola, Fla., arriving at that port on Oct. 26 with her provisions exhausted.

Between the time the schooner left Chelsea and the time she arrived at Pensacola, according to the government authorities her interior arrangements were completely rearranged. A deck had been built in the hold below, the main deck partitions had been torn out and arrangements had been made to build a number of bunks, the government officials claim, for the benefit of the Chinese passengers. Although the schooner was bound ostensibly on a fishing trip it is alleged (that no fishing tackle was put on board. The crew had not been paid and when the schooner finally reached Boston from Pensacola she was libelled by some of the sailors for wages.

In the meantime the government, learning that there were plans on foot for smuggling Chinese into the country, began an investigation. Springer is alleged to have been located in Vera Cruz his whereabouts being determined by an avalanche of souvenir postal cards which he forwarded from the Mexican city to his family in Boston.

Springer was arrested in this city last night soon after his return from Mexico.

The government does not offer any explanation why the Chinese were not put aboard the schooner at Vera Cruz, Chinese bound for Mexico usually land in San Francisco in bond and are forwarded to the Mexican frontier where there are no exclusion laws.

Government officials said today that other arrests were pending.

BIG HORSE SHOW

Many Entries for Today's Events

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—A superb lot of horses pranced into the tankard ring in Madison Square garden today at the commencing of the second day's judging of the annual show. Today's judging was one of the most varied of the week, and twenty-six entrants, ponies, held the floor. The first event of the day, the hackney class, Nimrod, a two-year-old bay stallion, exhibited by Isaac Morris, was awarded first prize. In the second event, hackney fillies, Wm. H. Bone's Fedora got first and the second prize was awarded to Irvington Opel. Clarence Mackay's Land O'Burns, a spirited chestnut, took the first prize in the three-year-old hackney class and the same owner's Prince of Ayr, a brown stallion, got second.

A SUICIDE

FORMER MEMBER OF CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES

LISBON, Monday, Nov. 9, via the frontier—Alberto Costa, a former member of the chamber of deputies and one of the most prominent of the republican leaders, committed suicide here today. His act has created a tremendous sensation and the police are making an investigation. Senor Costa was a member of the Black Cross society which was involved in the assassination last February of King Carlos and Crown Prince Luis. It is believed that this society selected Costa by lot to kill the present king, Manuel, and that Costa preferred to kill himself to committing this deed. Costa was in prison at the time of the assassination of King Carlos, having been confined because of alleged connection with the plot against his majesty.

PRES. CASTRO ILL

CARACAS, Ven., Nov. 9, via Wilmstadt, Nov. 10.—President Castro has been advised by his physicians to go to Europe for the purpose of getting medical treatment for the malady from which he has been suffering recently. His friends do not believe that such a step will be necessary.

DR. THOMPSON DEAD

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 10.—Dr. D. DeCamp Thompson of Chicago, editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, died here today as the result of an automobile accident last evening in which he suffered internal injuries. Death was due principally to nervous shock, the age of the victim, which was 55 years, contributing to make his recovery impossible. Dr. Thompson had been attending the meetings of the foreign missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church.

MAJOR THACKSTER DEAD

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 10.—Major Sidney Thackster, considered one of the most famous officers from Maine in the Civil war in which he served with the First Maine cavalry, and a prominent farm merchant, died today after a long illness with a cancer. He leaves a widow and three sons.

Mr. and Mrs. John Maguire, formerly of this city but now of Everett, are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl Sunday at the home of Mrs. Maguire's father in Eddy street.

THE SUN

Is On Sale

At Both News Stands

In the Union Station

BOSTON

WOMAN RE-ARRESTED

Mrs. Martha Dunphy Will be Taken to Chicago

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Mrs. Martha Dunphy was taken into the municipal court today on the charge of being a fugitive from justice and was discharged. She was then re-arrested by Inspector Tierney of Chicago, who, having secured extradition papers, will take her to Chicago to answer to the charge of the larceny of $10,000 worth of jewelry and stocks from Charles E. Giles of Boston. It was arranged that they should start late this afternoon. Mrs. Dunphy will be accompanied by Mrs. J. E. Frothingham, who it is said will be prepared to furnish whatever bail is demanded by the Chicago courts. Mrs. Dunphy's husband, Dr. John Dunphy, has brought a civil suit against Mr. Giles, charging alienation of the affections of the doctor's wife. He seeks to recover $25,000 and has attached Mr. Giles' property in Dorchester.

MISS PIETTE STILL ASLEEP

Louisiana Piette, Little Canada's slumberer, still slumbers, and her case is just as great a mystery to the doctors as it was in the beginning. She went to sleep one week ago last Friday and she is slowly but surely wasting away.

Dr. L. V. Rochette has the case in hand at the present time and he will call other doctors in consultation. He thinks, however, that the case is a hopeless one. It is his intention now to try to wake her by electricity.

YALE-HARVARD WAS LOCKED UP

50,000 Applications for Tickets for Game

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 10.—Announcement was made today at Yale that owing to the fact that there had been from 40,000 to 50,000 applications for tickets to the Yale-Harvard football game it had been found necessary to cut down the number of tickets allowed to each graduate from three to two.

Economides Located by a Constable

Anthony Economides, who it is alleged, attempted to stab his sister last Saturday at the latter's home in upper Market street, and who swore out a warrant against Anastasio Boufous and failed to appear in police court this morning, was arrested this afternoon on a capias by Constable Harry Demarais and locked up.

NERVES LIFE TABLETS WARD OFF OLD AGE

55,000 Inquiries for Them in October

The greatest nerve and blood tablets ever compounded. Rebuild the body from overwork, brain fog, excessive smoking. Contain no opiates, form no habit, have no reaction. Relieve nervous exhaustion, prostration and disorders of stomach, kidneys and liver. They increase appetite, digestion, assimilation, circulation and flood the body with new life. They make blood, healthy flesh and clear eyes. They induce sleep, quicken the brain, restore the nerves. They double one's power of endurance. They stop your taking cold.

If desired, the Emerson Home Co. will send name and address of these genuine testimonials. Enclose stamp with request.

"Your tablets 'NERVES' saved me from suicide."—Mr. J. L. "My whole system was a nervous wreck, susceptible to colds, and dizzy spells, and totally unfit for business. Your tablets 'NERVES' put me right onto my feet. Have not had a cold since."—Mr. J. S. "I feel as I never expected to feel again, strong and full of endurance. I think your tablets are wonderful."—Mrs. H. D. "My wish is that every nervous sufferer may get the help I did from your tablets. I am a new person."—Mrs. G. "There are no words too strong in praise for the good your tablets and me and others in my family."—Mr. D. B.

Price 65 cents at our stores or by mail. Write or call for testimonial circular. Riker-Jaynes' 7 Stores, Boston, Mass.

THE EMERSON HOME CO., Roxbury Sta., Boston, Mass., Proprietors.

CHEERING CROWD STOCK MARKET

Thought Kaiser Was in Airship

BERLIN, Nov. 10.—It was erroneously reported here today that Emperor William had made an ascension in the Zeppelin airship this afternoon and the evening editions of the local papers carried detailed descriptions of the reported flight of his majesty.

The explanation of the mistaken report is to be found in the fact that Prince Von Fuerstenberg who did make an ascension with Count Zeppelin, was mistaken by the cheering crowds for his majesty. The prince has been the emperor's traveling companion lately and when he made his ascension today he was clad in the same style of hunting dress that the emperor has been wearing. The people thought that the prince was his majesty.

The error is the more easily accounted for because Emperor William was at Friedrichshafen today and it was reported last night that he purposed making an ascension with the count. When the count returned from his short flight with Prince Von Fuerstenberg he was met by the emperor who personally conferred on him the order of the Black Eagle. His majesty hung the chain of the order around the neck of the count and then kissed him three times amid the cheering of the assembled crowds.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Adhemar Stroobans and Miss Annie Hall Blanchard were married yesterday morning at St. Joseph's church, where a nuptial mass was celebrated at 7 o'clock by Rev. Fr. Barlette, O. M. I. Messrs. Prosper Stroobans and Joseph Hall Blanchard witnessed the ceremony.

MORISSETTE-DUREAU

Mr. Jean Baptiste Morissette and Miss Exilia Dureau were married yesterday morning at St. Joseph's church, where a nuptial mass, which was attended by a large number of friends, was celebrated at 8 o'clock by Rev. Fr. Baron, O. M. I. The bride was attended by Mr. L. J. Connelley, and the bridegroom by Mr. Caprien Morissette. In the evening a reception to several hundred guests took place in Gratton hall, where dancing was enjoyed till late, to the music of an orchestra.

MILLS ON FULL TIME

NORTH KINGSTOWN R. I., Nov. 10.—The mills of the Rodman Woolen Manufacturing Co. here have resumed the full time schedule. The mills have been on short time for four days a week the past nine months. About two hundred hands are affected.

FOR BURGLARY

TWO MEN PLACED ON TRIAL AT DANBURY

DANBURY, Conn., Nov. 10.—Chas. Hoffman and Henry Williams were presented for trial here today in the superior court, criminal side, on the charge of burglary at the home of Samuel J. Clemons (Mark Twain) in Reading several weeks ago. In connection with the charge against Williams, who resisted arrest and shot at the officer attempting to arrest him, the additional charge of assault with intent to kill was placed.

Today's Quotations on Active Stocks

The following are the closing quotations of today's stock market for active stocks. Furnished by F. W. Mills, Hildreth Bldg.

NEW YORK STOCKS
Atchafalpa	95 1/2
Am. Beet Sugar	21 1/2
Am. Cotton Oil	40 1/2
American Car Foundry	46 1/2
Amalgamated	57 1/2
Am. Sugar	57 1/2
Am. Smelting and Ref. Co.	67 1/2
Am. Locomotive	67 1/2
Anaconda	52 1/2
Am. Ice Sec.	25 1/2
Brooklyn Rapid Transit	53 1/2
Bellington & Ohio	108 1/2
Chesapeake & Ohio	46
Chicago & Great Western	40
Colorado Fuel and Iron	7 1/2
Distillers' Securities	35
Erie 1st	47 1/2
Great Northern	140 1/2
Louisville and Nashville	115
Canadian Pacific	177 1/2
Cont. Leather	23 1/2
Illinois Central	143 1/2
Int. Steam Pump	31
Erie	34
Mexican Central	17
Missouri Kansas & T. pd.	33 1/2
Missouri Pacific	67 1/2
Norfolk	61 1/2
New York Central	115
New York Air Brake	82
National Lead	85 1/2
Norfolk	84 1/2
Pennsylvania	123 1/2
Pacific Mail	25 1/2
Pressed Steel Car	39 1/2
Reading	139 1/2
Railway Steel Springs	45 1/2
Rock Island	42
Rock Island	49 1/2
Southern Railway	24 1/2
Southern Railway	58 1/2
U. S. Steel	112 1/2
Union Pacific	151
Utah Copper	50 1/2
Southern Pacific	117 1/2
St. Paul	146 1/2
Tenn. Copper	44 1/2
U. S. Steel	54 1/2
U. S. Rubber	36 1/2
Peoples Gas	97 1/2
Wabash	32
W. U. T.	62
Westinghouse	91 1/2

BOSTON STOCKS

Am. T. & T.	123 1/2
Butte	23 1/2
Boston Com.	23 1/2
Cent.	35 1/2
Copper	82
Greene Can.	12 1/2
La. Sable	15 1/2
Mass. Electric	10 1/2
Mass. Electric	51 1/2
Mass. Gas	59
Mass. Gas	59
North Butte	87 1/2
Old Dominion	58
Parrot	29
Quincy	100
Trinity	19 1/2
Shannon	18 1/2
United Fruit Ex-rights	131
Utah	45 1/2
Woolen	95
*Ex-dividend.

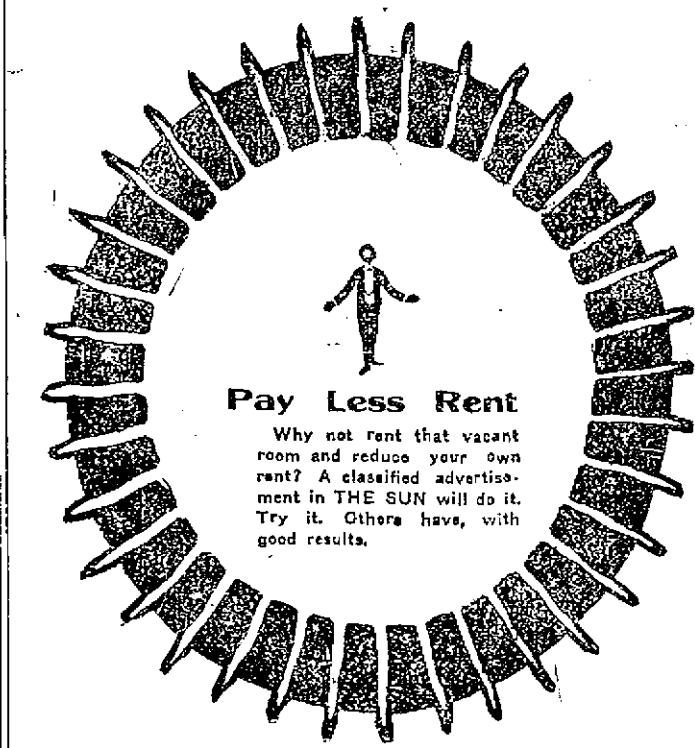

POLICE BOARD

WILL HOLD REGULAR MEETING THIS EVENING

The regular meeting of the police board is scheduled for tonight, but unless the unexpected happens the meeting will be one of the quietest of the year, for there is little but routine business to come before the board.

HUNDREDS SAW MAN MURDERED

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 10.—Several hundred employes, many of them young women, today witnessed the killing of Francis Embriani by Pietro Disconti near a large factory in Harrison and instantly pursued the slayer. They quickly captured the man and were using him roughly when an officer interfered and rescued him. It was said the men had quarreled over a small sum of money.

Pay Less Rent

Why not rent that vacant room and reduce your own rent? A classified advertisement in THE SUN will do it. Try it. Others have, with good results.

WHY NOT ORDER YOUR WINTER COAL AT THIS SUMMER PRICE?

Prompt Delivery and Careful Attention Given to Your Order

AT THE

HORNE COAL CO., 15 Central Street

ALL KINDS OF THE BEST COALS

LATEST TARIFF HEARING

Attitude of the Manufacturers May Be Disclosed Today

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Today's hearing before the ways and means committee on the proposed changes in the tariff will reflect the attitude which the business interests of the country will assume with regard to the tariff at the various hearings to be held during the coming month. Eighty-six paragraphs under "schedule A" of the Dingley tariff, under the heading of chemicals, oils and paints, are up for the consideration of the committee at the hearings today and tomorrow, and the attitude assumed by the manufacturers, importers and exporters on the articles affected by this schedule are expected to forecast the attitude which the committee will assume in framing the tariff bill to be presented to the special session of congress which Mr. Taft will call after his inauguration as president.

The chemical, drug, color, paint, oil and liquor interests are well represented here today, but aside from the color and paint manufacturers there seems to be a lack of concerted action among the representatives of any of these industries. Some are in favor of a reduction in the tariff on raw materials, but the majority are advocating a protective tariff. They do not desire any change in the rates of duty for fear that it would disturb the business conditions of the country. A peculiar situation with regard to schedule A of the tariff is that articles that are regarded as raw materials for one industry are finished products for another.

Eugene Merz, a representative of the paint and color industry who is to appear before the committee today will advocate a continuation of the present tariff rates on the grounds that "a protective tariff is a quarantine against infection of the business depression of other nations."

The majority of the ways and means committee claim that it is necessary for this country to adopt a tariff with a maximum and minimum rate of duty in order to conform with the tariffs adopted by France, Germany and Russia. In this way the United States could get the benefit of the "favored nation" clause of those countries in return for the minimum rate of duty of our tariff. In foreign countries which have adopted such a tariff there is a reduction of about 20 per cent. in the minimum rate. The manufacturers who are advocating a protective tariff want the committee on ways and means to make the present rates of duty the minimum rates in the new tariff bill which would result in a considerable increase in the rates of duty for countries which have no "favored nation" clause to offer the United States.

GOVERNOR GUILD

HON. CURTIS GUILD, GOVERNOR.

Issues Proclamation Making Nov. 26 Thanksgiving Day

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Gov. Curtis Guild, Jr., yesterday issued his proclamation making Thursday, Nov. 26, Thanksgiving day. The proclamation follows:

"Earnest and sincere belief in divine guidance, deep-rooted faith that even present apparent evil must ultimately convert to good, upheld the founders of New England through trials that elsewhere utterly destroyed settlements made by men less completely convinced of their own duty less deeply faithful of divine wisdom. Not for ease, but for strength, was the prayer of the Puritan, and in his prayer he disciplined his soul by seeking cause less for repining than for praise.

"In accordance with the beautiful custom, which since Gov. Bradford called the colonists together after their first harvest, has yearly set aside a day at this season for the special acknowledgment of his mercies, vouchsafed to us, I, therefore, with the advice and consent of the honorable council, appoint Thursday, Nov. 26, as a day for the giving of thanks to Almighty God.

"In our testimony of gratitude for evil escaped or good achieved, whether we bear it by spoken word in the house of worship or in the quiet communings of our own hearts, let us not forget reverently to acknowledge the blessings of peace.

"Peace has entered among the nations. The long impending crisis that was to drench Europe with blood, has passed. There has come with it not war, but the deliberation of a patient and ancient race from a yoke centuries old. The white fleet of our country bears our flag to the orient and to the south seas, but had there ever was a prophecy of the exasperation of enemies is forgotten in a world-wide revelation of friends.

"To the ancient sources of barbaric assault on civilization, the regions of the Scythian, the Persian, the Turk and the Tartar, has come the gospel of popular freedom, and freedom, not license, is peace.

"Peace is spread among the creeds. The old races, the mingling of whose blood swells the veins of the new, virile, strong American race, have brought to this soil varying methods of worship, but the old intolerance is gone forever. Every year men quarrel less and less over the difference in the manner of their devotions. Every year, with a greater measure of mutual respect, comes the deeper sense of brotherhood under the same Divine Father.

"May this great gift of peace abide. May it never be confounded with servility or sloth. As war is death, so peace is life. May we reverently use it not each for himself alone, but each for his least fortunate neighbor, that he, too, may revel in life and enjoy it more abundantly.

"Given at the council chamber, this fourth day of November, the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eight, and of the independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and thirty-third.

"Curtis Guild, Jr., Governor, with the advice and consent of the Council.

"William M. Olin, Secretary.

"God save the Commonwealth of Massachusetts."

100 STUDENTS WERE INJURED

VIENNA, Nov. 10.—An encounter between two warring factions of students attending the university of Vienna resulted today in injury to about 100 of the young men.

The cause of the conflict is to be found in the smoldering antagonism between the Pan-German and the Jewish students. This bitter feeling broke out today and led to a sanguinary encounter which culminated in the collapse of a balcony in the university where the fighters had congregated in force and the precipitation of many of the combatants to the floor below. Some of the students were seriously injured.

NOT IDENTIFIED DRINK LESS BEER

Strange Woman Who Attacked Mrs. Phipps

DENVER, Nov. 10.—The police have investigated every source of information in an effort to identify the mysterious woman who threatened Mrs. Genevieve Chandler Phipps with death by dynamite yesterday. Last night they found in her room at the American hotel a rich silver toilet set engraved with the initials "F. C. R." The woman says that she recently had brain fever and her appearance would bear out this assertion. Her hair is prematurely grey in spots and her face is thin and her body lean. Her memory seems to be clouded and when asked as to the place whence she came to Denver she replied that she thought it was Boston. She was sure that she had been in New York in recent months.

The woman has every appearance of refinement and her clothing is of fine material. Miss Phipps soon recovered from the shock of her experience and attended the theatre last night.

A LOUD PROTEST Against Closing of Primary School Grades

The fact that no more primary school lots are allowed at the Greenhale school in Ennell street is causing tongues to wag in that section of the city. The Greenhale school was originally intended for a grammar and primary school and six of the ten rooms constituted the grammar school and the other four the primary school.

At the time that the Greenhale school was built it was said that the Lakeview avenue school was not a fit place for children and that was why four of the ten rooms in the Greenhale school were devoted to primary classes. Now, it is stated, no more primary school children are allowed to enter that school. Those who are already there will be allowed to stay, but they, of course, will be advanced in time, so that it will be eventually a full-fledged grammar school.

In view of the fact that at the time the Greenhale school was built the Lakeview avenue school was considered a dangerous place for children because of poor sanitation, its close proximity to the dumps being harped upon as a very bad feature of its location, it does seem odd that at this time with the sanitary conditions as they were then and the dumps still there, that it should be considered a safe school for children.

What might be called a school line has been drawn through Cumberland road, being refused admittance to the Greenhale school, it is to the Lakeview avenue school that the children living on the southerly side of Cumberland road will have to go, if they go at all.

The children living on the northerly side of Cumberland road will have to go to the Billings street school, and that would entail a hardship that would be imposed on little primary school tots. It would be a great hardship for them, especially in the winter time, when the snow and slush are having their inroads, to have to plough their way by the long stretch of dreary territory to the Billings street school.

"Something must be done to change the situation," said a man who has a little girl ready for the primary school. "It would be out of the question for my little girl or any other little girl to walk from our home to the Billings street school. This is a state of affairs that we will not stand for."

Georgianna Walker is still numbered among the missing and it is now thought that she went to the river and not to the canal, her father, James H. Walker, the well known contractor, speaking of the sad affair, today, said: "I have had men at work searching the canal and the river for some trace of Georgianna, but no trace has been found. Now that we have dragged the canal and searched the river I do not know which way to turn."

IS STILL MISSING

No Trace of Miss Georgianna Walker

Georgianna Walker is still numbered among the missing and it is now thought that she went to the river and not to the canal, her father, James H. Walker, the well known contractor, speaking of the sad affair, today, said: "I have had men at work searching the canal and the river for some trace of Georgianna, but no trace has been found. Now that we have dragged the canal and searched the river I do not know which way to turn."

FUNERALS

MURTAGH—All that was mortal of the late Sarah J. Murtagh, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed residents of St. Peter's parish, was tenderly consigned to its last resting place in the family lot in the Catholic cemetery this morning.

The funeral took place from her late home, 10 Abbott street, at 8:30 o'clock, and the remains were taken to St. Peter's church, where at 9 o'clock a high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. John P. Burns. The choir rendered the Gregorian mass. At the offertory "Domine Jesu Christi" was sung by Mrs. P. P. Haggerty and as the body was borne from the church "De Profundis" was rendered by Mr. James E. Donnelly, assisted by the choir. Mrs. Josephine McKennedy presided at the organ and the choir was under the direction of Mr. P. P. Haggerty.

There was a profusion of beautiful and appropriate floral offerings showing the esteem in which the deceased was held by her many friends and acquaintances and among them were the following: Large pillow of roses, pinks and chrysanthemums with the inscription "Vive", from the husband of the deceased; large spray of white chrysanthemums with white ribbon, from Mrs. Thomas Murtagh of Middleboro, Mass.; large spray of chrysanthemums and ferns, from Mrs. Patrick O'Brien. There were several other sprays from friends.

Among the many mourners from out of town were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murtagh of Middleboro, Mass.; Mrs. Gertrude Mahan, Roxbury, Mass.; Mr. James Smith of Pawtucket, R. I.

The bearers were Messrs. Thomas Clark, Thomas Coleman, James Burke, Patrick O'Brien, John Welch and Cornelius Calahan.

The funeral proceeded to the Catholic cemetery, where the last rites of the Catholic church were read at the grave by the Rev. John P. Burns. The interment was under the direction of Higgins Bros., undertakers.

DIRECTOR PIERCE RETIRES

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 10.—H. C. Pierce yesterday retired from the St. Louis & San Francisco level of directors on account of ill health. G. T. Briggs, the Rock Island assistant secretary of New York, succeeded him. All other directors were re-elected.

The bearers were Messrs. Thomas Clark, Thomas Coleman, James Burke, Patrick O'Brien, John Welch and Cornelius Calahan.

The funeral proceeded to the Catholic cemetery, where the last rites of the Catholic church were read at the grave by the Rev. John P. Burns. The interment was under the direction of Higgins Bros., undertakers.

Catarrh

One of the most common of blood diseases, is much aggravated by the sudden changes of weather at this time of year. Begin treatment at once with Hood's Sarsaparilla, which effects radical and permanent cures. This great medicine has received

40,366 Testimonials

In two years, which prove its wonderful efficacy in purifying and enriching the blood. Best for all blood diseases. In usual liquid form or chocolate tablets known as Sarsaparilla. 100 doses $1.

FOUR ON TRIAL

Men are Charged With Murder of Auburn, Me.

AUBURN, Me., Nov. 10.—A special term of the supreme court was convened today for the purpose of trying four men on the charge of murder. Two of the men are Albanians, charged with the murder of James Scott, a fellow countryman at Livermore Falls, last winter, and the other two are John and Frank Perkins, held for the killing of Frank Strout, their neighbor at Poland.

It was arranged to first try Pascal Nikolis and George Mene for the Scott murder. It was expected a jury would be completed easily and that County Attorney Mene would begin his opening this afternoon. Much interest centered in this opening as it was expected to disclose for the first time the evidence gathered by the state during the past three months and carefully guarded. Pascal's alleged confession, the testimony of two witnesses who have remained in jail and other features lent interest to the trial.

HE DREW A KNIFE

Man Said to Have Attacked His Sister

In police court today it was brought out that Elythia Rousomaneas had a narrow escape from serious injury at the hands of her brother, Anthony Economides, in upper Market street, Saturday.

Yesterday afternoon Economides, wearing a pair of black eyes, appeared at the office of the clerk of the court and swore out a warrant for the arrest of one Anastasios Boufexas, whom the complainant alleged brutally beat him. Boufexas was arrested and arraigned in court this morning but it was found that this complainant was among the missing.

Lawyer Dennis J. Murphy, who appeared for the government, informed the court that he was of the opinion that Economides was mentally weak. Economides was found insane several years ago and was sent to the insane asylum at Danvers, where he spent some time and was later released and allowed to go to his home in Greece. While in that country he stabbed his mother and then came back to America and settled in Lynn.

Saturday he came to this city and calling upon his sister in upper Market street, picked up a knife and it is said, was about to stab her, when her cries attracted the attention of Boufexas and the latter rushed into the house and had battle with Economides, the result being that the latter received a couple of black eyes and was thrown into the street.

Mrs. Rousomaneas, the sister of the complainant, was on hand to testify against her brother, but owing to the latter's non-appearance the court ordered that a capias be issued and the complainant brought into court.

Economides gave his residence at 246 Boston street, Lynn, but it is thought that he is being cared for by some of his friends in this city.

AN INSURANCE CASE

On Trial at Superior Court Today Proves Interesting

The case of Everson vs. General Accident, Fire and Insurance company was resumed in the superior court yesterday after a lengthy conference between counsel and Judge White. When the case was resumed counsel for the defense made the following statement:

"Certain interrogatories were filed while this case was suspended. These interrogatories concerned the authority of Franklin J. Moore as manager in the United States. I called to Scotland, asking whether the authority of Mr. Moore would be admitted. The answer was returned that the company would not admit such authority until fully informed. Thereupon, after discussion with the court, the court made a ruling in response to a motion by Mr. Russell (counsel for the plaintiff) to default the defendant unless the interrogatories were answered. The court ruled that such authority must be admitted or the defendant be defaulted. I protested as vigorously as possible against such a ruling and in spite of that protest the court ordered me either to admit or be defaulted. Under these circumstances there is only one thing to do, from my point of view; that is, to admit. Regardless of personal consequences, I am therefore prepared to admit that authority."

Mr. Russell, counsel for the defense, continued to block the progress of the case by objecting to evidence being put in as bearing on the transactions of Franklin J. Moore, on the ground that proof was not made that the company had knowledge of these transactions.

The court admitted the evidence, subject to Mr. Russell's objections.

The first witness put on by the plaintiff was Arthur E. Russell, chief clerk of the insurance department, state house, Boston.

Through the testimony of the expert for the defense, constantly objecting, Mr. Russell proved certain purposes signed by Franklin J. Moore as U. S. manager for the company. The witness testified to many papers from his office bearing Franklin J. Moore's signature as U. S. manager, covering the period of the issuance of the policy to Mr. Everson.

Mr. Russell also offered a letter addressed to the insurance company and signed Fred S. Moore.

To this Mr. Russell objected on the ground that there was no proof of Mr. Fred S. Moore's authority.

"He is right here," said Mr. Russell. "I can put him on the stand."

"Mr. F. S. Moore will not leave the court room," directed Judge White.

DEATHS

McLAUGHLIN—The many friends of Mrs. Mary McLaughlin will be pained to learn of her death which occurred this morning at her home, 337 Riverside street, after an illness of several weeks. She had been a highly respected resident of this city for over fifty years and was a prominent member of St. Patrick's church. She was deeply loved in her home circle and by those who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Henry Gaudette and Miss Mary L. McLaughlin; one son, James P. McLaughlin.

The funeral will take place Thursday morning from her late home, 337 Riverside street at 8 o'clock. Requiem mass at St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock. The funeral will be under the direction of Higgins Bros., undertakers.

NEW STEAMER LAUNCHED

STETTIN, Nov. 10.—The steamer George Washington of the North German Lloyd line, was successfully launched at Bremen, a ship of this city today and christened by Dr. Paul J. Hill, the ambassador from the United States. The George Washington is the largest German built and owned steamer in the world. The ambassador made a brief speech before he broke a bottle of champagne over the vessel's bow, referring to the vast trade between Germany and the United States.

"And the dedication of this great vessel to a mission of human service between the two continents is a token of mutual confidence," the ambassador declared.

CANNON'S FRIENDS

Say the Speaker Will Have Little Opposition for Re-election

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Following the arrival in this city of the republican members of the ways and means committee of the house for the tariff revision and many other republican congressmen to attend the department business postponed until after election, the selection of the speaker of the 61st congress was a subject of keen discussion today in Washington. None of the arrivals cared to come out openly in opposition to the re-election of Speaker Cannon, while members who have been close with Mr. Cannon during his occupancy of the chair assert positively that there will be no opposition to him by the time the republicans meet to caucus on the speakership.

Mr. Cannon's friends claim to be greatly encouraged by the election. Not only did the speaker himself receive a handsome plurality in his district where a bitter fight was waged against him but they point out that many of the members who had announced their opposition to his re-election as speaker met with defeat at the polls. The defeat of Rep. Edgar C. Ellis of Kansas City, Mo., J. S. Boyd, Edmund H. Hirsch and George Morris of Nebraska after they had declared their opposition to the speaker, is taken by the speaker's friends as an indication that the people do not condemn Mr. Cannon. On the contrary the three Missouri districts in which he campaigned most actively and where the republican candidates announced their preference for Mr. Cannon for speaker retired the democratic congressmen by electing republicans. The election is regarded by Mr. Cannon's adherents as limiting the supply of speakership "timbers."

The candidacy of Rep. Charles N. Fowler of New Jersey for speaker is not taken seriously by Mr. Cannon's friends. They say that Mr. Fowler will do well to retain the chairmanship of the committee on banking and currency and that his course as chairman of that committee during the last session was such as would defeat him in a speakership contest.

TO ELECT BISHOP GENERAL WOOD

Diocesan Meeting Held in Washington Takes Command of Dept. of East

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The Washington diocesan meeting of the Protestant Episcopal church met again in this city today for the fourth time in as many months, to elect a successor to the late Bishop Satterlee. The bishopric was twice declined by Bishop Brent of the Philippines and later by Dr. Alexander Mann of Boston. Routine matters occupied the delegates today. Bishop Sheldon Griswold of Salina, Kan., Rev. Dr. James P. Winchester of Memphis, Tenn., and Rev. Charles Slattery of Springfield, Mass., are regarded as the leading candidates.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—With the absence of all ceremony with the single exception of a salute of 13 guns, Major General Wood, who reached this city yesterday after an absence of six years in the Philippines, today assumed command of the department of the east of the United States army, with headquarters on Governors island. General Wood succeeds Maj. Gen. Frederick Grant, who will take command of the department of the lakes. A reception was held later in the day at the officers' club when the officers and their wives assembled in the Brooklyn navy yard to greet Gen. and Mrs. Wood.

THE LOWELL SUN

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, PROPRIETOR.

Member of the Associated Press.

Three Dollars per Year. Twenty-five Cents per Month

The Sun receives the full day service of THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, the greatest news-gathering organization in the world. The entire service is rendered over a leased wire, by our own operator, in our own office in The Sun Building.

SWORN CIRCULATION OF THE SUN

The sworn daily net average circulation of The Lowell Sun, for the year 1907 was

15,453

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reldy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1908.

JAMES E. O'DONNELL, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest net average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

TARIFF REVISION THE ONLY BARRIER.

The only thing that is now likely to delay prosperity in any line of industry is the revision of the tariff. That will not come until after March 4 of next year. In the meantime every industry can build up all the business it may without fear of tariff disturbance.

The prospect of a change in the tariff, however, will prevent some companies from taking many orders for any great distance ahead.

It is expected, however, that while tariff revision may slightly unsettle some industries for a time, it will effect an improvement that will aid legitimate industry and protect the people against the operation of oppressive trusts.

STRAIGHT TIP TO VOTERS.

When a man has been convicted in police court for various offenses, he must have a queer idea of the fitness of things when he sets himself up as a candidate for alderman. Of course under the law nobody can prevent him from being a candidate; but when he does not hesitate to disgrace the party to which he belongs the voters should take care not to endorse his conduct or his candidacy by their votes.

Does this man think that a police court conviction is a commendation to the voters or a prerequisite to nomination for office?

The man who would throw away his vote for such a candidate is as bad as the candidate himself, and both are dishonoring a citizenship of which any man might feel proud.

BOSTON EXTRAVAGANCE EXPOSED.

That is a most astounding condition of rottenness exposed by the finance commission of Boston wherein that body shows that from one half to three-fourths of the citizens escape paying poll taxes and that the expense of collecting those paid is greater than the amount collected. When from $8.30 to $14 a day is paid copying clerks for work that can be done very much better and quicker by typewriters, the force of the commission's report becomes apparent. It is estimated that the changes recommended will net a saving of over $61,000. If half what the commission says in relation to the assessors' department be true, it is certainly no wonder that the tax rate of Boston is high, and no wonder that the debt is yearly increasing at a rapid rate.

DUTY OF VOTERS AT THE PRIMARIES.

The political parties have their ballots made up for the primaries and each has a fairly good list to select from, although there are on both tickets men wholly unsuited for the offices they seek. In the matter of selection it is all resolved finally to a matter of individual responsibility.

The average citizen must do his duty in the primaries if we are to have any improvement in our city government. If any party fails to make nominations that will command general support it need not feel disappointed at seeing the voters select a ticket made up of the best in all the tickets presented on election day.

What is wanted in candidates is: incorruptibility, business capacity, freedom from entangling business relations and courage to contend with the grafters who seem to think they can ply their business regardless of who is in the mayor's chair or in the board of aldermen.

It is the duty of every citizen in passing upon his party ticket to consider each and every candidate with reference to these qualities and select the men who have them in the highest degree.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S LETTER.

Apropos of the attack upon the religion of President-elect Taft, the letter of President Roosevelt touching the religion of presidential candidates in general is broad in its spirit as the American principle of freedom underlying the constitution of this republic. Although what the president says on this matter is a truism when considered in connection with the constitutional rights of American citizens, yet it is astonishing to find how many people there are, even in this city, who think that men of certain religious beliefs are debarred from being candidates for the presidency.

The letter of President Roosevelt will, we hope, clear up this matter in the public mind and thus explode a false idea that prejudiced some ignorant people against our government and constitution.

The president in reply to his correspondent in the course of a long letter has this paragraph:

"You ask that Mr. Taft shall let the world know what his religious belief is. This is purely his own private concern; and it is a matter between him and his Maker, a matter for his own conscience, and to require it to be made public under penalty of political discrimination is to violate the first principles of our government, which guarantee complete religious liberty, and the right to each man to act in religious affairs as his own conscience dictates."

This is the proper stand to take in reference to the religion of candidates. It is the spirit of freedom embodied in our constitution, and to adopt a different policy would not only set up sectional differences and conflicts but would cause men of no religion to use the mantle of religion to deceive the public, to catch votes and win preeminence just as some crooks and politicians are wont to proclaim their honesty as a commendation to the public.

SEEN AND HEARD

If your name is Carr and you go looking for a doctor in the middle of the night here is what is liable to happen: A fellow by that name, not many years ago, was taken violently sick during the hour that the graveyards were yawning, and he made haste to a doctor's house. He rapped at the door and the doctor from a window two stories above said, "Who's there?" "Mr. Carr," said the sick man at the door. "Well if you missed a car, wait for the next, you dern fool. I ought to have you arrested for waking me up at this hour of the night, you drunken sot," said the enraged doctor.

From a national standpoint says the Hamilton Herald of Hamilton, Canada, Canadian people have more cause for thanksgiving now than they had a year ago. Then a period of financial and industrial depression had developed, and the outlook was gloomy; now there are signs that the depression is lifting and the outlook is cheerful. Then, the harvest which had been good was disappointing, and small owing to unusually unfavorable weather conditions in the west this year's wheat harvest is a great one and above the average in quality. As a people we have our troubles, industrial, commercial, social and political; but it is probably not too much to say, and it is well to remember, that taking one thing with another, no people on earth have greater cause for thanksgiving than have the people of Canada. It is fitting that a sincere spirit of gratitude should be felt and manifested on the day set apart for national thanksgiving.

"JIM" THOMPSON'S REFLECTIONS

I hardly noticed how de summer time done pass away
An' de autumn come a-rappin' at de door
I've been down to de Virgin' an' de blossoms was as gay
An' de sunshine was as shinin' as befo'
I kind o' got to feelin' all contented an' secure
Like there wasn't any trouble loasin' round
A-rappin' dat my comfort at de lake-side was dead sure
When a leaf came slowly driftin' to de ground

It just got thred o' clingin' to de trees
An' de wind took it, an' it was gone
It warn't no use o' waitin' for a freeze,
An' soon a comrade lef de limb above an' floated near
An' still the sun kep' smilin' 'thoo de trees

I hear de boss' auto honk; but I sholy got de blues
An' de wind took on a solemn winter sound
'Twere like a telegraph dat carried mighty mourn' news
Dat yell' leaf dat fluttered to de ground

The shock to Orville W. Peabody when he learned that the poundkeeper's appropriation had been exhausted was greater than the shock he received when the highwayman struck him over the head with an overgrown coupling pin several years ago.

The Southern girl of the ante-bellum period—the rose of the old regime—was a heart's delight. She was never a flirt. There is a difference between a humming bird, making a dainty pretense of kissing a jasmine—and a cat playing with a mouse. Coquetry with the southern girl of that by-gone day was the unconscious challenge of a feminine woman accustomed to homage. It never verged upon coarseness or cruelty—never lost her man's esteem, which remained to her after the hot whirl of the senses had subsided under the cool surprise of her look. No, the southern girl was no flirt. She was sentimental. It was her sweetest charm—the drop of dew in the heart of the rose, keeping it fresh forever. Her sentiment was not sickly. The girl who cherished a dead flower her lover had given her, would bind up his wounds on a bloody

GOUT & RHEUMATISM
Great English Remedy
BLAIR'S PILLS
Safe, Sure, Effective. 50c & $1.
DRUGGISTS, or to H. M. Blair, N. Y.

Steamship Tickets
To and from Great Britain, Ireland and all parts of Europe, on the Canadian, White Star and all the leading lines.
AT MURPHY'S AGENCY,
15 Appleton St., opp. Postoffice.
Money orders and drafts sold, payable in all parts of Europe, for any amount.

$ SAVED IS $ MADE

Your can experience same at
Louis Price's JEWELRY STORE
24 PRESCOTT STREET
I guarantee a saving on all work and purchases.

Fresh Clams Every Day

At the Lowell Inn. Fresh fish direct from the Boston wharves. Lobsters fresh from the traps. Meats fresh and wholesome. Call and see us.
LOWELL INN, busiest place in Central street.

JOHN J. O'CONNELL

FUNERAL DIRECTOR,
Telephone Connection
1010 Central St. Davis Sq.

ST. THOMAS' SALVE

FOR Piles, Old Sores and Skin Diseases
—FOR SALE—
At All Up-to-Date Drug Stores
THIRTY-FIVE CENTS.

Wall Paper

—AT—
97 APPLETON ST.
ELECTRIC and COMBINATION
FIXTURES
At Manufacturer's Prices
—AT—
DERBY & MORSE'S
64 Middle Street, Lowell, Mass.

JAMES E. O'DONNELL

Attorney-at-Law
Lowell, Mass.

battlefield or ride through storm of bullets to warn him of danger—cook his dinner and iron his shirt when he was her husband and had lost his patrimony and beaten his sword into a plowshare. They were capable of dying with broken hearts—those girls—but dying with unlowered colors.
—Mary E. Ryan, in Uncle Remus—The Home Magazine for November.

CHINESE EMPEROR

Is in a Very Weakened Condition

PEKIN, Nov. 10.—The emperor of China, who has been suffering for nearly two weeks from an intestinal disorder, is worse today. He refuses foreign medical aid or to take foreign medicine. He is unusually weak, but in spite of this he received the members of the grand council yesterday. He was propped up on pillows during the interview. The members of the grand council are non-committal in the matter of the emperor's condition. Yuan Shikai, however, is an exception; he is pessimistic.
Public business has been suspended on account of the indisposition of the dowager empress.

AUTUMN MEETING

OF WOMAN'S BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETIES

The autumn meeting of the Woman's Baptist Foreign Missionary circles, Merrimack River association, will be held in the Second Baptist church, Lawrence, Thursday, Nov. 12. The program is as follows:

10.30 a. m.—Prayer and praise service, Mrs. E. M. Lake.
10.45 a. m.—Address of welcome, Mrs. J. A. Brackett.
10.50 a. m.—Messages from our circles. Open discussion.
11.45 a. m.—"Our Apportionment—What Shall We Do About It?"
12 m.—"Over Against the Treasury," Miss Alice T. Steadman.
12.15 p. m.—New Literature, Mrs. F. P. Haggard.

INTERMISSION

2 p. m.—Scripture lesson and prayer, Mrs. Anna Reed Dille.
2.15 p. m.—Address, "Our Telugu Sisters," Miss Helen Newcomb.
3.50 p. m.—Solo, Miss Alice Leith.
8 p. m.—Address, "The Yanadis," Mrs. W. B. Boggs, South India.
3.50 p. m.—Solo, Miss Alice Leith.
4 p. m.—Closing prayer.

IN NASHUA COURT

Mr. and Mrs. "Jocko" McLaughlin appeared in the police court at Nashua yesterday, and through Fred J. Gaffney, their counsel, pleaded nolo to the charge of being vagrants. They got six months each which was suspended, providing they quit the town. After McLaughlin got out of the house of correction, last June, he came to Lowell and effected a matrimonial alliance with the woman who was the respondent with him yesterday. They then went to Nashua and have remained there since.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF LOWELL:

OWING TO CIRCUMSTANCES BEYOND MY CONTROL I HAVE BEEN UNABLE TO BEGIN MY CAMPAIGN FOR THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION FOR MAYOR. IN THE MEANTIME OTHER ASPIRANTS HAVE BEEN PLACING THEIR CLAIMS BEFORE THE VOTERS. NONE OF THEM HAVE MENTIONED THE FACT THAT A SECOND NOMINATION AFTER ONE STRONG CAMPAIGN FOR THIS GREAT HONOR IS ONLY CUSTOMARY FAIR PLAY, RATIFIED BY THE PRACTICE OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY LOCALLY FOR MANY YEARS. THERE IS NO NECESSITY OF HERE SETTING FORTH YEARS OF LOYAL PARTY SERVICE IN BEHALF OF COUNTLESS CANDIDATES AND INSTANCES OF VOLUNTARY WITHDRAWAL FOR THE ASSISTANCE OF OTHERS AND THE UNFOLDING OF THIS PARTY. MY PARTY RECORD IS SECOND TO NONE IN THE CITY, AND THIS IS A MATTER OF COMMON KNOWLEDGE.

RECORDS OF PUBLIC SERVICE ARE PROPERLY DISCUSSED WHEN MEN SEEK HONORS AT THE HANDS OF THEIR FELLOW CITIZENS. I DARE PLACE MY PUBLIC RECORD AGAINST THAT OF ANY MAN IN OUR CITY, WHATEVER HIS POLITICAL PARTY, OR HIS PERSONAL OR SOCIAL CONNECTIONS AND AFFILIATIONS. I AM WILLING TO BE JUDGED BY MY ACTS IN ANY PUBLIC POSITION EVER HELD BY ME, WHETHER AS PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL, ON THE SCHOOL BOARD, AS A DIRECTOR OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY, OR ON THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

I BELIEVE THE HONEST AND INTELLIGENT MEN OF THE PARTY WILL CONCEDE THAT MY RECORD IS ONE OF CAREFUL REGARD FOR THE PUBLIC INTEREST AND OF WISE EXPENDITURE OF THE PUBLIC MONIES AND THE GRADUAL BUT CONSTANT ERECTION AND MAINTENANCE OF PERMANENT PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS.

MY CAMPAIGN OF LAST YEAR IS FRESH IN THE MINDS OF THE MEMBERS OF THE PARTY. THAT IT DID NOT RESULT IN VICTORY WAS DUE SOLELY TO THE BELIEF IN THE MINDS OF MANY MEN THAT ANY MAYOR, NOT WHOLLY BAD, SHOULD HAVE A RE-ELECTION.

THERE IS AN OPPORTUNITY THIS YEAR TO RESTORE THE GOVERNMENT OF THE CITY TO THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY WHICH HAS FURNISHED TO THE CITY MANY OF ITS BEST EXECUTIVES. THAT MY CANDIDACY WILL BE SUCCESSFUL AT THE POLLS IF CONFIRMED BY YOU IN THE PRIMARIES I HAVE ABSOLUTELY NO DOUBT.

THAT BY EVERY CONSIDERATION OF JUSTICE, FAIR PLAY AND PARTY HONOR THIS NOMINATION SHOULD BE MINE, I LEAVE TO THE HONEST JUDGMENT OF FAIR AND IMPARTIAL MEN NEVER DOUBTING WHAT THEIR ACTION SHALL BE.

IF ELECTED BY THE WHOLE PEOPLE OF THE CITY I SHALL HAVE BUT ONE CONTINUAL AND NEVER RESTING DESIRE, AND THAT IS THAT THE FUTURE MAY SAY OF ME: "HE WAS AS GOOD A MAYOR AS LOWELL EVER HAD."

RESPECTFULLY,
JAMES E. O'DONNELL.
22 ROBERT ST.

MONEY FOR WIRES

For Police Dept. Refused by Committee

ANOTHER MEETING TO BE HELD THIS EVENING

At Which Sanitary Conditions of Lincoln School Will Be Discussed—The School At Present Demands Prompt Attention

The committee on appropriations at a meeting held at the city hall last night voted to recommend $2500 for sundries and salaries in the police department. The committee, however, balked at an appropriation of $3000 for the laying of wires for the police department. Supt. Moffatt was there and asked for the wire appropriation. Electrician Michael Burns said the estimated cost of laying the wires was about $2000, divided as follows: Tower's corner to fair grounds, $1204; Tower's corner up to Middlesex street, $1502; Cabot street to Pawtucketville, $400.

In addition, Supt. Moffatt figured $2500 is necessary for "piecing out," this amount to cover sundries and salaries. It was voted to recommend the $2500.

The question then came on voting money for the laying of wires. "I'm not in favor of voting a red cent for anything that isn't necessary," said Councilman Stevens.

"Nor I," declared Councilman Dexter.

It was agreed that the wires could not be laid in any event until next year, and the committee took no action.

FOR THANKSGIVING

THERE WILL BE PLENTY OF TURKEYS

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 10.—Horace Vose of Westerly is preparing the chief element for President Roosevelt's last Thanksgiving dinner at the White House, a turkey gobble. The one Mr. Vose put in the pen for this year's presidential Thanksgiving made the scales mark 34 pounds, every one of them of avoirdupois weight. "He is a daisy," said Mr. Vose, "and when he is decorated with the usual trimmings and the proverbial cranberry sauce he will make a feast even a president may well be thankful for." "Turkeys will be plentiful, say the wholesalers. The Rhode Island crop is expected to be large, and western birds are offered in goodly number. Prices, however, are slightly higher than they were a year ago, the present wholesale price being between 23 and 25 cents a pound, as compared with 20 and 23 cents at this time last year.

Putnam & Son Co.,
166 CENTRAL STREET

HIGH SCHOOL CADET UNIFORMS

The uniforms we provide are the only ones sold in Lowell that are of the correct shade of blue—and of standard quality and standard weight.

A comparison of our uniforms with those offered by other houses is all that is necessary to prove this statement.

We are using today the same fine cloth of regulation blue that we have furnished for five years—a cloth that is warranted to be strictly all wool and warranted not to fade. Strictly military in cut, finely tailored. We fit every uniform we sell without expense.

High School Uniforms

FOR PRIVATES

BLOUSES $3.50
TROUSERS $2.50
CAPS with H. S. R. on front 95c

FOR CORPORALS

BLOUSES with chevrons sewed on $4.00
TROUSERS with stripes sewed on $3.00
CAPS with embroidered wreath, and letters and silver cord $1.50

FOR SERGEANTS

BLOUSES for all Sergeants, with correct chevrons sewed on $4.25
TROUSERS with stripes sewed on $3.00
CAPS with embroidered wreath, letters and silver and gilt cord $1.50

Company Letters 5c
Embroidered Letters H. S. R. 15c
Embroidered Wreaths and Letters 45c
Cord (silver or silver and gilt) 25c
Enamel Rank Mark Pins for Commissioned and Non-Commissioned Officers—either blue or white fields 25c
Pennants and Arm Bands—L. H. S. gray letters on red grounds, 45c and 18c

HEATED DEBATE

Is Expected Over A. F. of Labor Resolution

DENVER, Nov. 10.—The American Federation of Labor today opened today's session by listening to the report of the executive council. The appointment of the usual committees was next in order.

The president then announced that the convention was open for business and the reception of resolutions.

According to the constitution, resolutions can be introduced from the floor up to the close of the session on Thursday afternoon. All these resolutions will be sent to the committee on resolutions and this committee will report them to the convention from time to time during the session. A resolution which will come up for consideration is expected to signify the entrance of the federation into politics. This resolution will doubtless be the cause of a prolonged discussion.

VOTE FOR

Edward H. Foye

Democratic Candidate for

PURCHASING AGENT

He Can be Elected

Caucuses Tuesday, Nov. 17.

WILLIAM F. RYAN,
34 West Third St.

Advertisement.

Big Specials
FOR Thursdays